TRUCE TO BURY DEAD

Buller Having Hard Fighting In Natal.

VICTORY OF GEN. LORD ROBERTS.

He Is In Striking Distance of One of the Boer Capitals—Believed Transvaalers Will Continue to Fight, but Not So Certain About Free Staters.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Sir Redvers Buller is having a hard time in Natal. It is evident now, after a fortnight's fighting, that he was misled when he wired that there was only a weak rear guard between him and Ladysmith. Apparently some of the hardest fighting of the war took place at the end of last week, as an armistice was agreed upon to allow attendance upon the wounded and burial of the dead. Both sides must have lost heavily.

At any moment, however, news may come of General Buller's success. Friday will begin the fourth month of the siege of the garrison, which is seemingly in a position where it is unable to do anything to help General Buller.

The government entertains no illusion. As announced in the house of commons, 10,000 additional troops will immediately go out, and the effective will be kept near 200,000.

Lord Roberts has done more than to capture 4,000 Boers and a few guns. He is within striking distance of one of the Boer capitals, and is master of a large district of the Free State. He has given a shock to Boer confidence and immeasurably restored the spirit of his own troops. In capturing Cronje he has taken a leader whose presence alone was worth thousands to the Boer cause.

The best opinion here is that the Transvaalers are certain to continue the fight with undiminished valor, but it is not so certain about the Free Staters.

THE SURRENDER OF GEN. CRONJE.

Boer General Turned Over as Prisoners to General Roberts About 4,000 Men and Some Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—It was announced that Lord Roberts notified the war office that the number of Boer prisoners approximates 4,000, of which about 1,150 are citizens of the Orange Free State, although in one of the following dispatches he estimated the men captured at about 3,000. The remainder are citizens of the Transvaal.

These dispatches were received from Lord Roberts:

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 28.—7:45 a. m.—General Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight, and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that her majesty's government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring, as it does, on the anniversary of Majuba."

"Paardeberg, 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.—From information furnished daily to me by the intelligence department it became apparent that General Cronje's force was becoming more depressed and that the discontent of the troops and the discord among the leaders was rapidly increasing. This feeling was doubtless accentuated by the disappointment caused when the Boer reinforcements which tried to relieve General Cronje were defeated by our troops on Feb. 23. I resolved, therefore, to bring pressure to bear on the enemy.

"Each night the trenches were pushed forward toward the enemy's laager, so as to gradually contract his position and at the same time I bombarded it heavily with artillery, which was yesterday materially aided by the arrival of four six-inch howitzers which I had ordered up from De Aar. In carrying out these measures a captive balloon gave great assistance by keeping us informed of the dispositions and movements of the enemy.

"At 3 a. m. today a most dashing advance was made by the Canadian regiment and some engineers, supported by the First Gordon Highlanders and Second Shropshires, resulting in our gaining a point some 600 yards nearer the enemy and within 80 yards of his trenches, where our men entrenched themselves and maintained their positions till morning, a gallant deed worthy of our colonial comrades and which, I am glad to say, was attended by comparatively slight loss.

"This apparently clinched matters, for, at daylight today, a letter signed by General Cronje, in which he stated that he surrendered unconditionally, was brought to our outposts under a flag of truce.

"In my reply, I told General Cronje he must present himself at my camp, and that his forces must come out of their laager after laying down their arms. By 7 a. m. I received General Cronje, and dispatched a telegram to you announcing the fact.

"In the course of conversation he asked for kind treatment at our hands, and also that his wife, grandson, private secretary, adjutant and servants might accompany him wherever he might be sent. I reassured him and told him his request would be complied with. I informed him that a general officer would be sent with him to Cape Town, to ensure his being treated with proper respect en route. He will start this afternoon under charge of Major General Pretorius, who will hand him over to the general commanding at Cape Town.

"The prisoners, who number about 3,000, will be formed into commandos under our own officers. They will also leave here today, reaching the Modder river tomorrow, when they will be moved to Cape Town in detachments."

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 27.—In a very successful attack made by the Royal Canadian contingent on one of the enemy's trenches this morning, Major Pellinier was wounded, 8 men were killed and 29 men were wounded.

"General MacDonald is expected to return to duty in a few days."

Wounded—Corporals W. S. Bradee, F. W. Coombs, C. G. Hulme; Privates A. Bagot, J. L. Bradshaw, N. E. Durant, P. J. Living, A. Roy, "7868," Sergeant W. Peppicott (?); Privates F. W. Sprague, K. Vilkers, E. U. Hughes, J. F. McConnell, A. Polkey, H. Proult, J. Sigvert, A. Theriault, F. Wasdele, Corporal F. H. Rutherford, and ten others follow.

Lord Roberts, in a dispatch to Governor General Lord Minto, at Ottawa, gives the names of Private Johnston and Scott as killed, in addition to those enumerated above.

The war office issued a list of 731 non-commissioned officers and men wounded in the fighting at Paardeberg, Sunday, Feb. 18, including 63 Canadians and 273 Highlanders.

ENTHUSIASM IN ENGLAND.

People of London Jubilant Over Victory. Also Rejoicing in Colonies and Settlements.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Enthusiasm, which exhibited in parliament over Lord Roberts' graphic details of the surrender of General Cronje, spread quickly to the streets. Crowds of people again gathered about the war office and the other bulletin places. Frequent cheers were given for "Bobs," who is the hero of the hour, and one old soldier became so excited in recounting the details of the victory that he fell dead.

In the more frequented parts of the metropolis flags were few and far between, and in Pall Mall, where the war office is situated, there was not a single bit of bunting flying, while only one flag flew over the Strand. But in the East End of London there were many small flags waving from the windows of the squalid dwellings. As the evening fell Londoners gave themselves up to unrestrained rejoicing.

On all sides the gallantry of the Canadians was much commented upon.

Cable dispatches poured in from the colonies and the settlements announcing that the rejoicing in those parts of the world was no less enthusiastic than in Great Britain itself.

It was reported that Lady Roberts, wife of Field Marshal Lord Roberts, will shortly start to join her husband.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The queen visited the hospital at Netley.

Immense crowds awaited her arrival and cheered themselves hoarse. The village was gayly decorated with flags, and her majesty's reception on the hospital grounds presented a scene of enthusiasm, the brilliant and bright uniforms adding color to the surroundings. The sovereign was visibly affected as she made a tour of the wards and spoke in the most kindly terms to numbers of the wounded.

FOREIGN OFFICERS CAPTURED.

Albrecht and Dewitz Among Those With Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The officers captured by General Roberts, besides General Piet Cronje, include the following well known commanders:

Chief Commandant M. J. Wolverens, a member of the volks raad; Field Cornet Frus, a Scandinavian; Major Albrecht, the famous German artillery man; Major Von Dewitz, the distinguished German officer responsible for most of the splendid engineering works of the Boers since the commencement of the war.

Twenty-nine Transvaal officers were captured and 18 Free State officers were made prisoners.

The guns captured from the Transvaal forces were three 75-centimeter Krupps, nine one-pounders and one Maxim gun. From the Free Staters the British captured one 75-centimeter Krupp and one Maxim gun.

DEATHS IN THE ARMY.

A Long List of Casualties Sent to the War Department by General Otis.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The war department received from General Otis the following list of deaths that have occurred among our military forces in the Philippines:

PRESBYTERIAN'S CHARGE.

King of the Belgians Said an Investigation Was Going on in Congo Free State.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In reply to representations in regard to the charges made by W. M. Morrison, of the American Presbyterian mission, with headquarters at Nashville, of outrages committed in the Congo Free State, including the demanding of enormous tributes from the people, the king of the Belgians says the government of the Congo Free State has been informed of the charges and that a judicial investigation is proceeding.

The British colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, who was also notified of the charges made, suggested that the matter should be referred to the foreign office, and the United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, to whom the charges were communicated, says he regrets he is unable to act without instructions from the state department, and suggests that representations on the subject be forwarded to Secretary Hay.

Miss Elsie Dunsinuir Married.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Naval Commander Arthur Goff-Calthorpe and Miss Elsie Dunsinuir, daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsinuir, of Victoria, B. C., were married at St. George's, Hanover Square. The bishop of British Columbia officiated at the ceremony.

PORTO RICO'S VIEW

Trinidad Has Free Trade With United States.

THEN WHY NOT OUR ISLAND?

Delegations, In a Statement to Congress, Say They Consider This Unfair—Declare Idea and Theory of a Tariff Repugnant to Them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The members of the several delegations from Porto Rico now in Washington, having read the compromise measure adopted at the Republican conference, united in a statement to congress, in which they say that the idea and theory of a tariff is repugnant to them, and that they are content to stand before their people and the people of the United States on the broad proposition that the island is entitled to receive absolutely free relations at once.

They call attention to the fact that the United States government, through the state department, recently negotiated a treaty with the island of Trinidad, in the West Indies, which is a British province, and a direct competitor of Porto Rico, by the terms of which treaty Trinidad is to receive from the United States, free of duty, all articles of machinery and implements and articles of husbandry and nearly all food supplies, the free list for Trinidad in this treaty being larger than the list of articles now admitted free in Porto Rico by executive order, all of which it is proposed to tax under the tariff bill now pending in congress. The delegations consider this unfair.

DEPEW'S ELOQUENT SPEECH.

Defended Administration's Philippine Policy—Turley Concluded Speech Against the Seating of Quay.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Mr. Depew (N. Y.) addressed the senate on the Philippines question. His oration was beautiful in thought and diction. He strongly upheld the policy of the administration, and, in conclusion, pictured so brilliantly commerce and civilization moving hand in hand for the happiness and uplifting of the people of the Philippines, as well as those of this country, that the galleries were swept by a storm of applause.

After Mr. Turley had concluded his speech on the Quay case, the Hawaiian government bill was again taken up, but little progress was made. An agreement was reached that a final vote should be taken on the measure today.

Mr. Turley (Tenn.), concluding his argument on the Quay case, begun the day before, was maintaining that the framers of the constitution intended that the legislature, and not the governor, should name the senators, except in certain circumstances, presented clearly by the constitution, when Mr. Penrose inquired if it were not the intention of the framers of the constitution that the senate at all times should be full, so that in view of such important matters as the force bill, an impeachment trial, or some similar case which might hinge upon one vote, the states might have equal representation.

Mr. Turley replied that that was the intention of the framers of the constitution, but it would not necessarily follow that the senate at all times could be kept full.

Mr. Spooner inquired what would be done should an insurrection, breaking out in a state dispersing the legislature and thus preventing it from electing a senator.

"Well," responded Mr. Turley, "it is my idea that if the insurrection attained such magnitude as to disperse the legislature, it would be pretty likely to have the governor running too."

To this Mr. Spooner replied that the governor could not very well be "dispersed."

Mr. Turley discussed precedents and maintained that from 1825 to the present time not a case could be found in support of the contention of Mr. Quay's supporters.

"It is impossible to find in all the records a precedent for this case," declared Mr. Turley. "To sum up the matter I may say that where the legislature either before or after the happening of the vacancy has had opportunity to fill the vacancy and has failed to do so the governor under every precedent for 75 years has no authority to make the appointment."

"That is the consistent rule of the senate for three-quarters of a century. This being the only body which can construe this particular clause of the constitution, are we to say, in 1868, when Mr. Corbett was knocking at the doors of the senate, one thing, and in 1900, when Mr. Quay is knocking at the doors, another?"

After Mr. Teller had made an explanation of his vote in the Mantle case, and had declared his purpose to stand by the senate's action in the Corbett case, the Quay case was laid aside. Mr. Penrose gave notice that he would call it today and every legislative day thereafter, his intention being to give way only to consideration of the conference report on the financial bill, which is privileged.

EXPECT BILL TO PASS.

Republican Managers Think Porto Rican Measure Will Go Through Today.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Republican managers are now confident that the modifications agreed upon at the conference Monday night the bill will command a narrow majority in the final vote today.

The general debate on the Porto Rican bill closed yesterday in a blaze of glory. The galleries were banked to the doors and every seat on the floor was occupied when the rival champions of the respective sides, Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, and Mr. Bailey, of Texas, made the closing arguments. Each spoke for an hour and a half.

CAPT. REICHMAN WITH BOERS.

Affairs at the United States Consulate Running Smoothly.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A cablegram received at the state department from Mr. Adelbert Hay, United States consul at Pretoria, reported the arrival at that capital of Captain Carl Reichmann, the United States army officer detailed to observe the conduct of the war in South Africa from the Boer side.

Mr. Hay adds that Captain Reichmann was courteously received by the Boer officials. The cablegram was dated Tuesday, and it is said at the department that all of the business of the consulate is being conducted with the greatest dispatch and smoothness.

THE RIVAL GOVERNORS.

They Still Maintain Dual Governments in the Capital of Kentucky.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 28.—Two state governments, completely officered, and each claiming to be the regular and legal officials, are in Frankfort and will remain, each claiming the right to administer the affairs of state until the question is adjudicated in the courts. As anticipated, the banks refuse to recognize either of the contending factions and, as a result, both are without money and the state funds are as securely tied up as they could be.

Legislators, county, as well as state officials, and all kinds of contractors with the state will have to wait until somebody is authorized by a decision of the court to pay them, and the state will have to wait on what is due it until the courts say who is authorized to receive it. The Democratic state officers have opened offices in the State hotel. The charitable and penal state institutions are among the sufferers.

PLAGUE AGAIN BROKE OUT.

Three More Cases Ended Fatally in Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The steamer Australia arrived from Honolulu. The Associated Press correspondent at Honolulu, writing under date of Feb. 20, said:

"After 12 days passing without sign of the plague, three cases were discovered yesterday and all ended fatally. The victims were two Chinese males and a woman half breed."

It is probable the case of the woman can be traced to infected food. A part of the block in which the woman lived was suspected some time ago, and destroyed by fire.

The council of state met, on request of the board of health, and appropriated $100,000 to fight the plague. In addition, the sum of $345,523 was appropriated for the extension and the completion of the sewer system. This last item was appropriated, subject to the approval of President McKinley.

Precautionary measures have been taken regarding the shipments of sugar.

Consul Haywood, who has returned, reports no undue excitement at Hilo. The residents are taking every possible means of stamping out the plague, and portions of the town which were in a very unsanitary condition are being cleaned.

Painful Impression in Rome.

ROME, Feb. 28.—The capitulation of General Cronje has produced a painful impression in Rome. The newspapers are unanimous in expressing their admiration for the Boer commander and his troops.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

CAN IT BE SO?

LAKE ERIE R. R. AFTER RIGHT OF WAY

About Smith's Ferry—May Come to Liverpool—News of the Suburb.

O. F. Hooker, of Smith's Ferry, was in East End, and if the statement he made becomes a reality, East Liverpool will become a terminus of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie rail road. Mr. Hooker is one of the men who lost their stores in Smith's Ferry by fire about 18 months ago, and was in the suburb calling on friends. Hooker stated to a reporter that engineers of the Lake Erie road had commenced to make a survey of the river bank south of Vanport for the purpose of extending the Lake Erie road from that town. The company intend to build a branch from the main line to Vanport, the place where the Standard Oil company is to erect a pipe mill. Land agents of the company, Mr. Hooker states, have been working in the vicinity of Smith's Ferry for some weeks, and one of these men said the railroad company intended to reach Liverpool if trestle work had to be constructed along the river bank.

OVER THE HILL.

Yesterday morning as John Searight was returning from delivering a load of coal in Dixonville, his wagon slipped on some ice as it was coming down the hill road, and when opposite the residence of Samuel Dobbs it went over the hill. The king bolt came out and the wagon and rear truck went over the hill, while the front truck and horses were left standing on the road. The wagon turned over four times, but escaped damage.

Where the accident occurred a spring flowing from the hill has run on the road, making it very dangerous for a horse to travel that direction.

The Boat Did Not Arrive.

Had the river been clear of ice the packet Queen City would have brought to East End a number of people from West Virginia and Kentucky yesterday afternoon. (Those who intended to come up wrote friends living in the suburb that they could not come on account of the failure of the boats to run. Some of these men have already arranged to go to work at laboring jobs in the East End flint mill and the sewer pipe works.

Scattering Cinders.

John Spence, who has charge of the East End streets, has been scattering cinders about the thoroughfares of the suburb for the past few days. All the cinders have been placed on the crossings, and when the weather moderates mud at these places will be very scarce.

Among the Sick.

Ellen, the small daughter of Rev. N. M. Crowe, who has been quite ill for the past few days, is recovering. Jacob Schroder, of Pennsylvania avenue, is ill with a threatened attack of typhoid fever.

Operations Suspended.

James Johnson, an oil driller who has been doing much work in the Ohioville district, has brought a number of his tools to East End to be repaired. Operations in that section have been suspended until the weather opens.

Personal.

Charles Blackmore, of Freedom, spent yesterday in the suburb visiting friends. He returned to his home last evening.

Admitted to Probate.

LISBON, Feb. 28.—[Special]—The will of Susan R. Greaves, late of Center township, has been admitted to probate.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Mechanics to Give Social and Dance—News of the South Side.

The school directors of the Grant district school at their next meeting will consider the plan of enlarging the school house in Chester. The present accommodations have been found to be too small for the number of pupils that are eligible to attend, and by next fall additional room must be provided. The population of Chester is steadily increasing, and, strange to say, the majority of the pupils who are now attending the school reside east of First avenue, while the school house is back of the postoffice. Some of the residents of the South Side want to have the town incorporated, in order that bonds may be issued and a modern school building be erected near the center of population, which will be probably in the vicinity of Second street. This section of Chester is being built up rapidly, and no sooner is a house completed than arrangements are made for its rental. When the mill starts many new families will move to Chester, and as their children must have an education a new school will be needed more than any thing else.

Want Another Car.

People who ride on the street car running to Chester would like the Street Railway company to put another car on the road. The claim is made that the car is unkempt and frequently breaks down, causing passengers much inconvenience in traveling. It frequently happens that the car has to be taken to the barn and another taken out in its place while necessary repairs are being made.

Good Bed of Sand.

An excellent bed of sand is now being worked by men employed by the South Side Land company. The sand is being taken from the northwest corner of the land company's addition at the north end of the hollow between the mill and pottery sites. This sand is being used in the construction of the pottery, and is of an excellent quality.

Repairing Their Tools.

Drilling in the Heck wells in the Grant district has been stopped and many of the tools used have been taken to repair shops where they are being overhauled. As soon as the weather opens operations will be resumed.

Agricultural Bulletins.

A Box Social and Dance.

The Chester mechanics have arranged to give a box social in their hall on the evening of March 13, and a dance on the evening of April 4.

Valuable Chickens.

William Allison, of Chester, is the possessor of some fine chickens, among which is one weighing about 11 pounds.

How Tayler Feels.

The Washington correspondent of the Ohio State Journal says: "Congressman Robert W. Tayler has returned from Ohio. I do not see any lines of care or worry upon the Tayler brow. He visited Canton, Youngstown and Lisbon, the three capitals of the three big counties comprising his district, and was much gratified to find out that the talked about opposition was mainly in Democratic newspapers."

ELECTRIC LIGHT FRANCHISE

A COMMITTEE WILL LOOK OVER THE ORDINANCE.

It Says How High the Poles Shall Be and How Far From the Ground to Place Wires.

The ordinance granting to O. A. Smith the right to operate an electric light plant in the city was placed on its first reading at council last night and was referred to a committee composed of Smith, Cain and Ashbaugh. The ordinance provides that the poles shall be 30 feet high and the wires shall be at least 25 feet from the ground. The company must permit the city to use their poles for fire alarm wires and if another electric light company desires to use the poles they can do so, provided a compensation can be agreed upon. The company is compelled to commence work as soon as possible after the franchise is passed.

ASSESSMENTS.

A Supreme Court Decision That Will Be of Interest to Many People.

A special from Columbus tells of the decision by the supreme court in the case of the city of Salem against Laura R. Mulford, error to the circuit court of Columbiana county. Judgment was affirmed. This was a test case, and was brought to determine the right of the city to collect interest on 25 per cent of the assessable valuation of a property. The question was where an assessment amounting to 25 per cent of the valuation runs for a period of years whether the city has a right to charge interest on installments. The decision means that the city can not assess any property more than 25 per cent of the valuation for any one improvement including the interest.

A GOOD THING.

Fourth Street Will Be Paved Between Market and Jackson Streets.

H. A. McNicol and George Hamilton were the only people who did not sign the petition to pave Fourth street from Market to Jackson streets. Attorney Travis explained that 661 out of a total of 980 feet of property on the street was represented on the petition. Council granted the petition but Mr. Peach did not vote on the motion, asking to be excused.

Passed Council.

The ordinance to assess a special tax on the property in sewer district No 2 was passed at the meeting of council last night.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE, Seventh Judicial District,

JOHN M. COOK.

Subject to decision of Columbiana county Republican primaries and Republican judicial convention.

Two Doses

of TONGALINE are usually enough to subdue the severest paroxysms of pain in neuralgic or rheumatic or gouty disease. Then, when the pain is gone and the sufferer has rest and strength-renewing sleep, further treatment with TONGALINE cures the disease, radically and permanently, by causing the body to throw off the poisons which caused the disturbance. No external application of lotion or liniment can secure a permanent cure. The cause of the disorder must be reached by internal treatment. This is exactly what TONGALINE does safely and effectively.

Tongaline
TRADE MARK

It will cure stubborn cases of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, nervous and sick headache, la grippe, sciatica, lumbago, and similar diseases. It is always best to prevent disease, therefore TONGALINE should be taken when the first symptoms appear of rheumatic fever, neuralgic or rheumatic pains, &c. It is the most effective cure known for "spring fever," a dangerous condition in which the body is clogged with poisonous impurities. TONGALINE, by its power to throw off impurities, cleanses and renews life in every part of the body.

TONGALINE is safe to take. It contains no opium, no morphine, no dangerous narcotic of any kind. It has been tested for twenty years and has been praised in the highest terms by physicians and patients.

TONGALINE is sold by all druggists for $1.00 a bottle. Full information concerning its cures and how to treat disease is contained in the book we will send free to our readers.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

Druggists sell Large Bottles for $1.00.

THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Council May Have Fancy
Enamel Iron Signs

PLACED AT THE STREET CORNERS

The Matter Has Been Left In the Hands of a Committee to Report at the Next Meeting but a Majority of the Council Seem to Favor the Plan.

A representative of the Beaver Falls Enameling company was at council last night and wanted to sell council street signs. He offered them in 1,000 lots at 28 cents each and in 4,000 lots at 22 cents each. His company guarantees the signs for 25 years and will replace any that chip in that time. The matter was referred to the street committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The majority of council seem to be in favor of having the streets lettered in such a way that it will be possible for a stranger to tell where he is when he comes to the city and wants to find any one. There is already an ordinance which provides for the signs, but like many other ordinances it seems to be a dead letter. Section 173 of the ordinance says the signs shall be put up at the expense of the city, the letters shall be distinct and legible, and the work shall be done under the direction of the engineer.

IMPROVEMENT ORDINANCES

Council Wanted to Dispose of
One, But Found That They Were Too Early.

The ordinance to improve Drury lane from Market street to Jackson street was placed on its first reading last night at council. Peach asked that the ordinance be placed on its final passage, and three members at once moved that the rules be suspended. Engineer George stated that the resolution had not been passed a sufficient length of time to enable council to pass the ordinance under a suspension of the rules.

The ordinance to pave Kossuth street from Walnut street to the east line of Sugar street was placed on its first reading.

FILED A PETITION.

Orchard Grove Alley Is Going to
Be Paved as Soon as the Weather Opens.

The residents of Orchard Grove alley last night asked council to pave the alley. The alley extends east from Calcutta road and the property on the south side of it is owned by Attorney F. E. Grosshans and on the north side by the Riverview Land company. They agreed to pay the cost of the improvement and waive all rights. The petition was granted and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids. The contract will be let by the street committee.

SAMUEL ASHBAUGH'S WILL.

LEAVES ALL TO HIS WIFE FOR LIFE,

Or as Long as She Remains His Widow - If She Marries, His Children Get All.

LISBON, Feb. 28. —[Special]—The will of Samuel Ashbaugh, late of Liverpool township, has been offered for probate. He leaves all his property, both personal and real, to his wife for life or as long as she remains his widow. At her death or should she remarry the property is to be divided equally among his children, but not until the youngest becomes of age. He nominates William Kent as his executor.

TAYLER INTERVIEWED.

Quoted as Saying Dr. Miles Is Sure of Salem Post-Office.

The Alliance Leader prints the following interview with Congressman R. W. Tayler.

"How about that Salem postoffice controversy? Will Dr. Miles be appointed?"

"Most assuredly he will be. I have recommended him for the place and he will be the next postmaster there, notwithstanding newspaper talk to the contrary."

"I suppose your main opposition comes from friends of the disappointed seekers for office."

"Yes, but there is not so much of it now as two years ago, and even then you know it amounted to very little."

MINORITY

Stockholders of Panhandle
File a Suit.

ASK FOR AN INJUNCTION

To Prevent Directors Paying
For Improvements.

From the Louisville Courier Journal, January 3, 1901.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 2.—Charles Barrett, of Somerville, Mass., in a representative suit on behalf of holders of the minority stock of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway company (Panhandle), filed a petition today in the United States Circuit Court at this city, asking the court to enjoin the Panhandle directors from paying for certain improvements which they have been recently making on different parts of the system, from moneys realized as net earnings, claiming that a contract was entered into in the articles of consolidation which required the company to use certain bonds and preferred stock for such improvements, they being of a permanent character, and to pay out the net earnings to the stockholders.

This suit appears to be different from the usual claims of minority holders, because it is insisted, in this case, that the question of distribution of net earnings to the amount substantially of 5 per cent is not left to the discretion of the directors, but they are under express obligations, under the consolidation agreement, to distribute net earnings to that amount among the stockholders, instead of applying them to permanent improvements.

The case is one of unusual importance both for this reason and the further one that if the claim is sustained the Pennsylvania Railroad company, as the alleged holder or controller of a majority of the stock of the P. C. C. and St. L. Railway company, will be compelled to submit to the issue on the part of the latter company of securities for all improvements hereafter of a permanent character, and meanwhile pay out net earnings to the amount above mentioned to the stockholders. It is easy to discern the serious character of such a suit, and the decision will be looked for with far more than ordinary interest.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"A Man of Mystery"

will be presented at the Grand tonight, and it is safe to predict that every person who witnessed the play when it was here August 29 will see it again. It is a really good melodrama, and is of the kind that sets one to thinking long after the curtain has fallen at the end of the last act. Hypnotism plays an important part in the play.

Taylor Is Confident.

Pittsburg Times Washington special.—Representative R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, O., has returned to Washington after a week's absence in his district, where he has been looking after his chances of renomination to congress. "I expect to come back," said Mr. Tayler, in answer to an inquiry as to the outlook in his district. "There is some opposition to me, but I feel confident that this will be overcome before the primaries are held and that I will receive the endorsement of the people of my district."

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. WEDNESDAY, FEB 28.

FOR PRESIDENT--Second Term.
WM. M'KINLEY,
of Ohio.

With a Tayler and a Baker in the race for congress the Republicans of this district should not want for clothes and pie.

THE Philadelphia Record, Democratic, asks "How long will this prosperity last?" As long as the Democrats are kept out of power to paralyze it.

A CRAZY SCHEME.

Toledo now proposes that if the legislature cannot appropriate a million of the state's cash to boom the Ohio centennial in that city, it should levy a special centennial tax to raise the amount. The scheme is too crazy to be considered outside of Toledo, the beneficiary. What do the people of Columbiana county and adjoining counties care about the success or failure of a local exposition in a third-rate town in a far off corner of the state?

STREET SIGNS.

WHAT IT IS ALL ABOUT.

The Porto Rican tariff bill now under discussion in congress provides for the levying of a duty of 25 per cent of the duties provided by the Dingley tariff law on all imports into Porto Rico. The opponents of the measure contend that Porto Rico is a part of the United States, and as such no tariff restrictions can be placed on the commerce between the mainland of the United States and the island, the constitution prohibiting the levying of a tax on commerce between the states. The advocates of the bill assert that Porto Rico is not a part of the United States, but merely a possession subject to its jurisdiction. The issue is, therefore, not so much whether there shall or shall not be a tariff on Porto Rican imports as it is a question whether congress has the power under the constitution to impose such a tariff. Upon the decision in this case will rest mainly the future government of all our island dependencies.

[The Committee Will Get It.

The ordinance granting a franchise to the Bell company to put their wires under ground was referred back to the committee at the meeting of council last night. The ordinance was on its second reading.

NAME THE TICKET

Mayor Bough to Run for Second Term.

SOME CANDIDATES DECLINE TO

Serve After Ticket Was Adopted by the Convention--Their Places to Be Filled by the Central Committee--A Very Harmonious Session.

The Prohibition convention for the nomination of candidates for the township and municipal offices in Liverpool township and the city of East Liverpool was held last evening in the Ferguson & Hill hall. There were about 40 persons present, and the older members of the party stated it was the best attended city convention ever held.

The meeting was called to order by Temporary Chairman S. J. Faulk, who was later elected permanent chairman, and Mayor Charles F. Bough permanent secretary. Mr. Bough stated the object of the meeting, and a committee composed of W. J. Curry, George C. Potter, Frank D. White, John M. Horton and William E. Mercer were appointed to nominate a city ticket and submit it to the convention for adoption. The result of the caucus was as follows:

Mayor--Charles F. Bough.
Marshal--Jerry McMillan.
Township Clerk--W. V. Harris.
Treasurer--Charles Bowman.
Township Trustee--Sears Shay.
Street Commissioner--David Coventry.
Board of Education--Rev. J. R. Greene, A. P. Cope, Z. B. Kinsey, D. M. Ogilvie.
Water Works Trustee--John Aten.
Council--First ward, Geo. O. Potter; Second ward, Ed. P. McHenry; Third ward, W. E. Mercer; Fourth ward, Ohas. Risinger; Fifth ward, James Miles, Charles Hayes.
Assessors--First ward, Ed Oandler; Second ward, Richard Till; Third ward, T. T. Harrison; Fourth ward, John

Reese; Fifth ward, Archie Searight; township, M. O. Fisher.

For city solicitor no one was selected. After the report of the committee was adopted, Charles Bowman, for treasurer; Charles Hayes, for council from the Fifth ward, and Charles Risinger, for council from the Fourth ward, declined to serve. The convention adopted the rule that those who declined to serve report to the central committee and that they would take action toward filling such vacancies.

During the meeting short speeches were made by David Coventry, Ed Surles, Collin Kinsey, William B. Tompkins, Charles Hayes and Charles Bowman.

The convention was very harmonious and not a dissenting voice was heard about the adoption of the ticket.

Council Wouldn't Let W. C. Pointer Erect a Small Frame Building on East Alley.

W. C. Pointer asked council last night to allow him to occupy that portion of East alley between the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad and Second street. He wanted to put up a small frame building and promised to get off the land when council wanted it. Upon motion of Fisher the petition was rejected.

Amicably Adjusted.

The trouble over the cost of the Wells-ville bridge over Little Yellow Creek exceeding the $12,000 agreed upon by the parties to its erection has been amicably adjusted. The county commissioners in addition to paying their $5,000 will pay $1,000 of the $1,153 excess and the Penn Bridge company will bear the $153. The street railway will only have to pay its original $5,000 and Wells-ville its $2,000.

A CAMPAIGN STORY

Aroused the Ire of Mr. Peach and He Made a Few Remarks at Council Last Night

An echo of the recent campaign was heard in council last night when President Peach said:

"It would be almost impossible to locate an individual so mean unless it would be on Pennsylvania avenue who would circulate a report as false as false can be. The report was that Doctor Marshall and I instructed the engineer to change the grade two feet on Pennsylvania avenue. Whoever circulated the report is simply a liar. We never influenced George in any way."

Engineer George stated they never spoke to him about the grade.

It is understood the story was worked in an effort to defeat Marshall for council in the Fifth ward.

DIED SUDDENLY.

William R. Mountford Passed Away Early This Morning, Aged 22.

William R. Mountford, aged 22, died suddenly at the home of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Mountford, 104 Sixth street, early this morning.

Deceased had been ailing for some time with pneumonia but was not considered to be seriously or dangerously ill. He was up and around the house last night, and also about five minutes before he died. He was unmarried. He was a member of the Young Men's Christian association. His father died two years ago today.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

TYPHOID PATIENTS.

Do You Know That There Is a Special Nurse Now in Our City?

Yes, there is, and she is very skillful, strong and courageous, and, best of all, has had years of experience in typhoid cases. Her presence in a fever-stricken home is, under Providence, a blessing. You who are in need of her services can secure her address by calling at this office.

BULLER, TOO, CARRIES A POINT

He Captures Pieter's Hill, the Boer's Main Position

ON THE ROAD TO LADYSMITH

And Expects to Relieve That Place Today
Or Tomorrow at Latest—Took Sixty Prisoners in His Latest Engagement.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—[Special]—General
Buller announces in a dispatch to the war department this morning that he has captured Pieter's hill, the main Boer position on the road to Ladysmith.

He took 60 prisoners in the fight, the main Boer force retreating before his advancing troops. It is believed here
that Ladysmith will be relieved today
or tomorrow at latest. The news of Cronje's defeat has disheartened the enemy, according to reports received
further resistance in his way to Ladysmith.

The Remains of Comrade Warren
T. McCain at Rest in Riverview Cemetery.

There was a large turnout of relatives, friends and G. A. R. comrades present at the funeral services of Warren
T. McCain yesterday. At his late home
in East End services were held. Rev. N.
M. Crowe leading in prayer, while Rev.
J. C. Taggart made a touching address,
speaking of the grand traits and characteristics of deceased, his kindness and unselfishness, his good citizenship and
his gallantry as a defender of his country's honor. In his address the speaker made mention of the fact that he had officiated at the funeral of the mother of Warren T. McCain some thirteen years
ago. Two appropriate selections were rendered by the G. A. R. quartette, W.
H. Surles, F. G. Croxall, Wm. B. Mc-Cord and Samuel Cartwright. The comrades of the veteran passed in review in the home residence, taking a last sad farewell of their beloved friend.

The pall bearers were F. G. Croxall,
J. O. Allison, Charles Shenkle, Samuel
Searight, G. M. Adam and W. H.

The Sons of Veterans constituted the firing squad, and the members were also in attendance at East End: The following members took part. Captain R. E.
Nicholls, C. A. Applegate, James Heck-athorn, Henry Weible, Archie Searight, Levi Boulton, F. W. Timmons, Allan
Hargreaves and Oriss M'Connell.

There were 43 comrades in attendance at the East End services, but ten of these comrades did not go to the cemetery on account of not being able for the long trip. Some 32 marched from the foot of Broadway to the China Works, to the music of the fife and drum by Doc.
Howard and George Brown. At the China Works, conveyances were on hand for all parties going to the cemetery. Comrade McCain having expressed a wish, only a short time since, that at least thirty comrades should follow his remains to his last resting place; and, with his usual consideration for those he loved, he had made provision that his comrades, many of them old and feeble, should not be compelled to walk.

The beautiful G. A. R. service was held at the grave, Chaplain Reed and Post Commander Anderson reading the service, while Comrades McCord, Croxall and Surles placed appropriate flowers upon the coffin. The G. A. R. quartet rendered a suitable selection and Rev. J.
C. Taggart pronounced the benediction, and the beautifully solemn service was ended and the last sad rites over our beloved comrade were ended and we bade him "goodby" to this world.

The floral tributes were exquisitely beautiful, presented by loved ones and by General Lyon Post No. 44.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Manager Loree's Decision on the Petition Filed Against Them.

Over 10,000 Ohio valley citizens petitioned General Manager Loree for a discontinuance of Sunday trains on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, and he has promised that no additional regular
and no cheap excursion trains will be run, but has refused to withdraw the train now running between Pittsburgh and Bellaire. This train, Mr. Loree says, was put on to meet the demands of business men. The impression prevails among some people that the charter obtained by the railroad company from the state prohibits Sunday trains, and that rights-of-way were granted by Ohio land owners with the same provision. The petitioners propose to investigate both beliefs.

minutes, when the parties agreed to stop, neither of them having gained a victory.

CLARK LOCAL OPTION BILL

Sure to Pass the Senate, Says
a Columbus Dispatch.

THE COMMITTEE CONSIDERED IT

At Length Last Night and Will Have a Hearing Tuesday Night of Next Week.
Friends of the Measure Confident It Will Go Through Easily.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 28.—[Special]—The
senate judiciary committee held a meeting last night and considered the Clark
local option bill at length in executive session. It was decided to give the friends and opponents of the bill a hearing at a meeting to be held Tuesday night of next week.

The bill was considered only in its legal phases last night. The clause making the reputation of a place sufficient to convict was alleged by some to
be unconstitutional but the committee
as a whole did not uphold this contention.

If the bill is reported favorably, as it likely will be, it will be without amendment. This will be a severe blow to the opponents of the measure, who had hoped the senate would amend it and it would have to go back to the house for concurrence and perhaps be killed there.

There is little or no doubt that the bill
will pass the senate with votes to spare.
Mr. Clark, the author of the bill, says it will have 20 votes, and a newspaper canvass shows that at least 18 senators are openly favorable. Sixteen is the constitutional majority.

Will Sue the City.

An action will be entered against the
Crawford Chamberlain lost on Trentvale street. It is claimed the death of the horse was due to the negligence of the city in not putting up the proper barricades.

slopes to the east and of easy access. The more you look into this location the better you will like it. Terms: Cash or time.

JUST THIS SIDE OF OAKLAND, EAST END,

We have 14 lots for sale. As usual, we have the prices lower than others. Lots lie level, no grading, sufficient fall for drainage. We sell them at $25 and $50. Terms to suit your income.

Our Country Residence Sites, Known as Ross' Meadows,

Are selling and many purchasers are in view. What is nicer than a snug country home?
We are selling this land in 2 1/2 acre lots, or larger if you want it. Located on the Lisbon and Liverpool road, 1 1/2 miles from city limits; good roads; it catches the notion of many people. If you are interested, come early and get your choice of the lots. Prices low; terms to suit you.

We do not attempt to mention here all the vacant lands and lots we have for sale. Surface to say there is not a street, addition or allotment in the city but what we have something for sale. It is to your advantage to call on us, for we can quote you prices and give you information on real estate affairs that only comes from dealing in it.

BLOWN TO COLORADO.

This Prairie Schooner Was Rigged With Sails and Made Record Time Years Ago in the Great Race For the Newly Discovered Goldfields.

In these days of automobiles, motorcycles and horseless vehicles it may not be uninteresting to know that one of the early inventions in this country to do away with animal motive power originated in Kansas City, Kan. Samuel Peppard was the genius who constructed a vehicle that carried him and three companions over the plains from Oskaloosa almost to Denver. And with such rapidity, too, that he not only passed all the white people journeying the same way, but easily distanced Indian pursuers and won his rig the unstinted admiration of the red men.

It was during the time of the excitement following the discovery of gold in Colorado. A great many people had set out for this El Dorado, and long wagon trains were to be seen every day moving across the plains. Mr. Peppard was anxious to go, but there was one great difficulty in the way—he didn't have the money to buy horses and wagon. So he sat down and thought it all over, and then as a result he gave out that he was going to build a wagon with a sail, which he thought would make the trip in about as good time as any prairie schooner that was floating around over the wild and woolly west.

When he first began to build the wagon, the wise men of the town all laughed at him for wasting his time on such a craft, just as other wise men of Noah's time scoffed at the good patriarch. Mr. Peppard's advisers declared that if he attempted to navigate such a craft he would certainly be killed, and the people in general looked the wagon over, shook their heads and called it "Peppard's folly."

But Mr. Peppard kept on sawing wood and turning it into wheels and running gear and boards. At last it was finished. It was made of rough lumber and shaped like a skiff. It was eight feet long from prow to stern and three feet across at amidships and two feet deep. The bed was placed on a running gear with axles six feet apart, the wheels all the same size and about as large as the front wheels of a buggy. A ten foot mast was fastened to the front axle and came up through the bottom of the wagon box, and to this two sails were rigged, the larger 11 by 8 feet, the other 7 by 5. They were both to be worked by a rope through a pulley at the top of the mast.

If the wind was high, the smaller was to be used, and if it was low the larger was to be employed. The wagon had a brake and a rudder for steering. The hounds, instead of having a tongue attached, came up over the top of the bed and were welded together. A bar was fastened here and extended backward three feet. There was a seat placed at the end of the bar for the captain, and he steered by pushing the bar to the right or the left. The craft rigged out weighed 350 pounds, carried a crew of four men, a cargo of 500 pounds, the camping outfit and provisions serving as ballast.

Before Mr. Peppard started on his overland voyage he made a trial one mile south of Oskaloosa on the present site of the Jefferson county fair grounds. There is a level stretch of several miles, and a good, stiff breeze was on. When it struck the large sail, the craft stuck its nose down to the ground and came near capsizing. He slackened sail and set out again with the large sheet reefed and the smaller full against the wind, and away it whizzed. It went so fast, in fact, that the boxing in the wheels heated. Then, when it went over a little knoll, it leaped about 30 feet into the air and came down with a crash.

His vessel was a wreck, but Mr. Peppard was not discouraged. He made new spindles, repaired the damage, and in a few days he and three companions were ready to start. Profiting by his first experience, Mr. Peppard chose a day to start when the wind was blowing only about ten knots an hour. The first day they went 50 miles. Their route lay northwest through Kansas and across the southwestern part of Nebraska until they struck the South Platte river, and from there they went toward Denver.

"Our best time was two miles in four minutes," said Mr. Peppard in describing the incidents of the journey. "We could not run faster than that rate, as the boxing would have heated. One day we went 50 miles in three hours and in doing so passed 625 teams."—Kansas City Journal.

Henry George's First Friend.

In the late seventies Henry George, the single tax reformer, came east from California. He was desperately poor and had but few acquaintances.

Shortly after his arrival he lectured before the Saturday Ethical club of New York, where his brilliant oratory and shabby attire made so striking a contrast as to excite the sympathy of those present.

After he left the club appointed a committee to aid him in getting up a public lecture. Among others, the committee included Seth Low, who was then engaged in business. He was in consultation at the time, and the committee were in a hurry, so he told them to send him a lot of tickets. They forwarded 20 to him the same day and felt happy at having secured $20 for the lecture fund. The next morning came a letter of thanks from Mr. Low praising the lecturer's intellectuality and inclosing a check for $250. The affair was a success, netting about $300, so that President Low may be said to have been the first man to start Mr. George on his eastern career.

Twenty years later, in 1897, Mr. Low was the citizens' candidate and Mr. George the labor candidate for mayor of New York. The latter made a vigorous campaign and in all his speeches advised the citizens, if they could not vote for him, to vote for his friend Seth Low, and on one occasion he said that if it had not been for the latter he would not be there as a candidate. Few understood his full meaning.—Saturday Evening Post.

He Had Enough.

There is a New York physician who takes an active interest in politics and is popular with the "boys." In spite of his jolly disposition he is an extremely thin man, so thin that many a joke is aimed at him. Here is the latest story they are telling about him:

A grocer's boy entered the doctor's office the other day with a basket of fine fruit which some grateful patient had sent to him. The doctor told the boy to place the basket in a cabinet which stood against the wall. At the same instant he stepped out of the room, and, going into an adjoining one, manipulated a contrivance which caused an articulated skeleton within the cabinet to waggle its head and limbs in an appalling manner just as the messenger boy opened the door.

With a yell of terror the boy fled. When the doctor had enjoyed a hearty laugh, he picked up a fine apple and followed the boy into the street to give it to him. "Come here, my boy!" he shouted. "Here's a fine apple for you."

"Not on your life!" replied the affrighted youngster, taking to his heels again. "You can't fool me with your clothes on!"—New York Tribune.

An Absentminded Professor.

I have a story of a gentleman now engaged in educational work which is, I think, somewhat remarkable and is also quite true. This gentleman was once professor of mathematics in a fine New England college. He was greatly interested in the work and devoted himself so wholly to it that a natural tendency which he had to absentmindedness became much accentuated.

One day when he had guests at dinner and was helping them to fish from a platter he took a plate bottom side up, put a fish on the bottom of the plate and handed it thus to one of the guests. There was a laugh at once, and his wife said, "My dear, if your absentmindedness has gone so far that you are serving people food on the bottoms of plates, I shall insist on your resigning your professorship."

She did insist on it, and he resigned and went into another and more general field of teaching. He is still a little inclined to be forgetful—like some of the rest of us—but he has never since served food on the bottom of a plate.—Boston Transcript.

Insulted.

"Troubled with insomnia, are you?" said Dr. Paresis after listening to his patient's tale of woe. "Tried all the usual remedies, have you? Well, now suppose you try to read 'The Impressions of a Bohemian.' It's a new book, just out. I tried to read it last night and was asleep in three minutes."

"Sir," replied the patient, with freezing dignity. "I am the author of that book, and I have the honor to wish you a very good evening!"

Sham Antiquities.

A few years ago, in Soho, London, there was a factory for antique coppers which is probably still in operation. The legitimate business of the place was the manufacture of stew-pans and kettles, but when trade was dull in that way any sort of antiques for which there happened to be a demand was produced instead.

An old incense burner, for example, would be reproduced by the dozen by hammering over a chuck. If ornamented with pierced work, the copies would be coated with asphaltum, through which the design would be traced, when it would then be eaten out in an acid bath, saving the time which would be required to cut out the pattern with a piercing saw. The bath leaves thin edges, by which such work may be detected.

The work would then be annealed and would be permitted to oxidize and scale. Pickling with muriatic acid and salt, to produce a good coating of verdigris, would complete the job. Sometimes these "antiques" would be purposely broken and would be clumsily mended with solder or with pure tin if the piece was to pass for a valuable one. Chiseled metal was reproduced by casting and "dubbing" over with the hammer, then pickling, annealing and bending. In such ways helmets, copper and brass castings for antique furniture and the like were made.—Art Amateur.

In racing scenes the horses do run at full speed. They run, however, not on the fixed stage, but on what may be called treadmills, which keep the horses in front of the house for longer or shorter periods, according as they are moved quickly or slowly. A picket fence, placed between the audience and the course, not only makes the scene more realistic; it also hides the mechanism of the treadmills. This fence has contributed in another way to add to the effect by being moved in opposition to the direction of the horses and so lending to their apparent speed.

As to the sounds made by the footfalls of horses to be heard as though passing outside an interior scene, they are reproduced by the dried hoofs of dead horses or wooden imitations mounted on handles and hammered against surfaces of stone, gravel, sod or whatever the occasion may demand. They are also more elaborately manufactured by revolving a cylinder with pins protruding from the surface. These pins are arranged, like the spurs on a hand organ roller, to imitate trotting, galloping or walking when struck against other substances. If the sound of a carriage is to be added to the tramping of horses, wheels are run on sand.—Cassell's Magazine.

Needed in His Business.

"I've decided," said the dignified old man, "to let you have that young Britley after all if you are positive that you can't be happy without him."

"Oh, father," the beautiful girl cried, "you don't know how happy you have made me! Now I can see the gates of paradise opening. Dear, dear, good, old papa! Let me kiss you for those sweet words! Oh, I can hardly wait to fly to him and tell him the glorious news. He will be so glad! We shall all be so happy now! It seems almost like a lovely dream! I can hardly believe that I am awake! But, tell me, what has made you change your mind? Yesterday when I tried to plead for him you said you would never permit him to see each other again. Ah, if you had known how those words bruised my heart! What has happened, father, to make you relent?"

He kissed her fondly and then, with tears in his eyes, replied: "I sat in a little game of poker where we happened to have a hand last night, and if we don't get that money back in the fairly some way my business is going to suffer."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Afraid to Bid.

At an auction sale of miscellaneous goods at a country store the auctioneer put up a buggy robe of fairly good quality. An old farmer inspected it closely, seemed to think there was a bargain in it, and yet he hesitated to bid.

"Think it cheap?" asked the auctioneer, crying a 10 cent bid.

"Yes, kinder," was the reply.

"Then why don't you bid and get it?"

"Well, I've bought heaps o' things in dry goods and so on," slowly rejoined the old man, "and I never yet took home anything that the old woman thought was worth the price. If I get that ere robe for even 15 cents, she'd grab it up, pull at one end, chew on a corner and call out: 'Cheated again! More'n half cotton!' That's the reason I didn't bid."—Ohio State Journal.

A Cork Safe.

"The most curious safe I ever saw," said a traveling man, "was a cork one, and it was made by an ingenious Dutch mechanic for a one time famous confidence man named Dr. Baggs, who operated in Denver, Salt Lake City and Frisco. The safe was a folding affair, made of paper on a backing of sheet cork, and, when it was opened up, was six feet high and looked exactly like the real thing. As it was always placed in a corner, it had only two sides, but every visible detail was complete—combination knob, hinges, lettering, bolt heads and all. When folded, it could be carried in an ordinary dress suit case. Baggs used the thing in a fake lottery office which was of itself a marvel of trick furnishing."

"When the victim entered the place, it looked like an ordinary business establishment, with desks, railings, maps on the walls, safe in the corner and several clerks at work on books. The instant he left a roll top desk was opened up into a bed, the railing was folded together and slipped into a closet, a table was transformed into a washstand, a cabinet turned into a bureau, the safe was put away in its case, the curtains were pulled down, and the room was to all appearances a simple sleeping apartment. By that means the poor dupe was never able to find the place where he had been bunked."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Red Tape Illustrated.

A correspondent passing hurriedly into the room of the committee on rivers and harbors pulled the knob off the door.

"How can I get that fixed, do you think?" asked the congressman. "Shall I get the carpenter or the locksmith?"

"The locksmith, I suppose."

"Do you see that bookcase there?" said the committee secretary. "I caused the carpenter to paste some cloth on the inside of the glass doors in order that the books might not show. He did the work, but when he had finished I noted that he had not cleaned the glass before he put the cloth on. The thing looked so disreputable that I asked him why he had not cleaned the glass. He told me that the glass was a permanent fixture and that he had no authority to touch it, but that the placing of the cloth upon it was a temporary matter and was entirely within the province of his labors. The whole thing's got to be done all over again."—Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Didn't Buy It.

The following story will show the high price that illustrators of reputation command for their work: A young woman who had received treatment from Dr. S. Weir Mitchell of Philadelphia and was very fond of him decided, at a recent celebration of his birthday, that a fitting and appropriate gift would be the presentation of one of the original drawings of Mr. Howard Pyle for "Hugh Wynne." Forthwith she invaded The Century company's sanctum and, with her fingers tenderly grasping a new $10 note, asked to buy the drawing. She was informed that these pictures were never sold unless exceptions were made in cases where the artist himself or the author wished to make the purchase.

The little lady in her excitement dropped the $10 bill. The gentleman at the desk picked it up for her and smiled while she hurriedly took her departure. The good doctor was presented with a less appropriate gift that year.—New York Times.

At the Examination.

Teacher (to little Isidor, who is very poor at fractions)—If I need $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards of cloth for a suit and the cloth costs 2½ gulden a yard, what will the suit cost?

Isidor—To begin with, teacher, 3 yards would be enough for a suit, and you could get it at our store for 2 gulden. The suit would cost you 6 gulden.—Fliegende Blätter.

For a Time - Other Features of the Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Third avenue was the centre of interest, as on previous days of this week, in the stock market Tuesday. On the sale of 1,100 shares at the opening, quotations were practically lost, simultaneous sales being made all the way between 68 and 63, against 71½ at Monday night's close.

Sugar maintained its prominent place in the market, but reflected much doubt and uncertainty on the part of the large outstanding short interest. It was forced down to 101½, and in the late dealings rallied strongly to 105¼, with only a fractional reaction. There was much disorder and weakness manifest at other points in the list of specialties, notably in the local traction group and tobacco. But an active demand for some of the railroad stocks, on reports of large earnings and covering of shorts in the specialties, brought the market to a high level and a quiet tone. During the hour after noon, the market seemed to have divorced itself entirely from the demoralizing influence of the movement in Third avenue.

But the next hour the bears fell upon the whole list tooth and nail, forcing down Western Union an extreme 3¾, and Baltimore and Ohio 2¾. Weakness spread from these to other points in the railroad list and wide losses were effected among the industrials. The local traction group were down from 2¼ to 5½, United States Leather over 2, Rubber preferred 3, American Hoop more than 4, New York Airbrake 5 and many railroad stocks from 1 to 2 points, and later Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis dropped 4. The bears rushed to cover at the decline, causing a rally from 1 to 2½ cents in the stocks which had shown greatest weakness. The final downward plunge in Third avenue was offset by the sudden rise in Sugar, leaving the tone in the general list confused and unsettled, but with losses in some points in the railroad list practically recovered. Strong showings of net earnings for January were made by Atchison, with an increase of 44 per cent, and Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis and Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg.

London bought stocks here, but not on a large scale, the surrender of General Cronje having apparently been discounted. The tone of the money market was firm, though rates were not notably higher, but collateral is scrutinized with growing care and the standing and resources of borrowers are considered. The fact that the sub-treasury has absorbed, since last Friday, nearly $6,000,000 of cash cannot be without influence in the stock market.

Railroad bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,590,000. Government bonds continued their buoyant advance. United States new 4s advanced 1½ and the 3s, old 4s and 5s ¼ in the bid price.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Blown to Death by Explosions of Nitro-glycerin, Near Marietta, Ohio.

MARIETTA, O., Feb. 28.—Harvey Benedict and Chester Campbell, of Williams-town, were blown to atoms while preparing to shoot a well with nitroglycerine.

A few minutes later, a load of nitroglycerine exploded, annihilating Samuel Fleming, his team and wagon.

ADMIRATION FOR CRONJE.

Maryland Legislature Expressed Its Resolution Introduced.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 28.—During the session of the house, bulletins were read by the clerk, announcing the surrender of General Cronje. Mr. Lancaster, of Charles county, offered the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on federal relations:

"Resolved, That this body of Maryland patriots express, in regular order or through proper channels, its intense admiration of the heroic stand made by General Cronje and his gallant band of heroes in their defense of man's dearest right, God-given liberty."

Pennsylvania Prohibitionists.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 29.—The Prohibition state executive committee decided upon Aug. 8 as the date for the state convention. State Chairman Jones was authorized to visit Johnstown and Williamsport and report as to the advisability of selecting either of these cities as the place for holding the convention.

Release of the Sabine.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Beyond making the statement, although already published that the steamship Sabine had been released by the British authorities at Port Elizabeth and had gone on her way, Ambassador Choate has made no report to the state department as to the outcome of his representations to the foreign office on the subject.

He Knew Hamsa Nature.

Three young men were walking up Riverside drive the other morning, when a gamy looking race horse jogged by, drawing a natty trotting rig.

"Isn't that a splendid animal?" exclaimed one of the young men in cheery, admiring tones, pausing to gaze at the trotter.

The driver's eye sparkled, and his chest expanded. He had heard the compliment. Wheeling his horse around, he brought it alongside the pavement.

"Wouldn't you like to try a brush behind him?" he said courteously.

In a jiffy the young man was seated in the buggy, and the two were disappearing down the drive at a pace that justified the compliment of the pedestrian. His companions watched him enviously. Then one of them said:

"Bill is a judge of horseflesh."

Barrow, the Kidnap, Insane.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

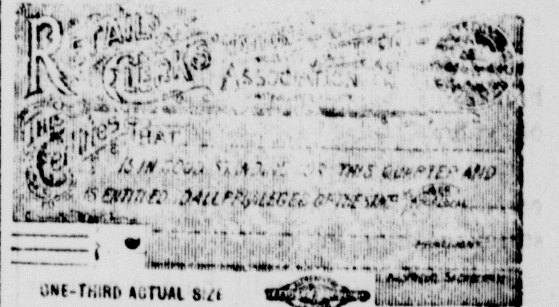

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

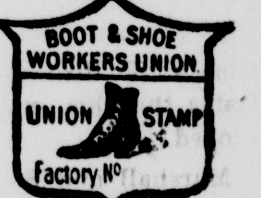

Members of the R. C. N. P. A. can check this card for it when making your purchases.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER. Good only in the quarter named in lower left hand corner and was properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailors' Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

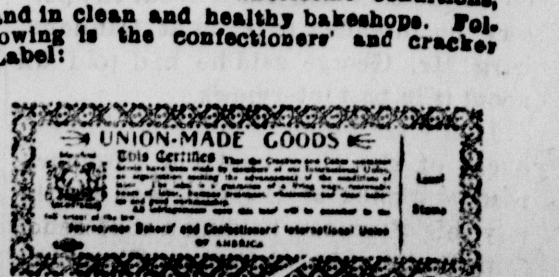

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and crackers' Label:

A number of witnesses were present, but Mr. McCloud made no claim to the hay and had told Chamberlain to get it, but he refused and insisted on having a law suit, as he "wanted to get that hay right."

East Liverpool's Vote.
East Liverpool held the city Republican primary election on Saturday, when 2,464 Republican votes were cast. Liverpool can't get over the force of habit of rolling up a big Republican vote at a Republican primary. What sort of a vote will be cast there on March 24 at the Republican county primary election when the secret ballot will be used?—Salem News.

As the ballot used here Saturday was also on the secret order, it is difficult to see what difference that will make. The chances are, however, that the county fight may not bring out as large a vote. Local fights always lead.

Awful!
The temperature recorded Monday night averaged 20 degrees below zero over town, and in Elkton, just four miles east, it dropped as low as 29.—Lisbon Patriot.

Fit the Food to the Physical Task.

Feats of strength require a diet in accordance with the needs—that is, prolonged or otherwise. If you want to perform for a short time the greatest possible amount of muscular labor, as in playing a game of ball, rowing, running, bicycling, lifting or accomplishing any unusual feat of strength requiring an extraordinary effort, always select a diet rich in protein. If, on the other hand, you want to take a great amount of steady exercise daily, or perform a great amount of uniformly heavy work every day, but at no time of a very intense character, you should partake of a diet containing little protein, but rich in carbohydrates—that is, starches and fats.—Ladies' Home Journal.

TRUCE TO BURY DEAD

Buller Having Hard Fighting In Natal.

VICTORY OF GEN. LORD ROBERTS.

He Is In Striking Distance of One of the Boer Capitals—Believed Transvaalers Will Continue to Fight, but Not So Certain About Free Staters.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Sir Redvers Buller is having a hard time in Natal. It is evident now, after a fortnight's fighting, that he was misled when he wired that there was only a weak rear guard between him and Ladysmith. Apparently some of the hardest fighting of the war took place at the end of last week, as an armistice was agreed upon to allow attendance upon the wounded and burial of the dead. Both sides must have lost heavily.

At any moment, however, news may come of General Buller's success. Friday will begin the fourth month of the siege of the garrison, which is seemingly in a position where it is unable to do anything to help General Buller.

The government entertains no illusion. As announced in the house of commons, 10,000 additional troops will immediately go out, and the effective will be kept near 200,000.

Lord Roberts has done more than to capture 4,000 Boers and a few guns. He is within striking distance of one of the Boer capitals, and is master of a large district of the Free State. He has given a shock to Boer confidence and immeasurably restored the spirit of his own troops. In capturing Cronje he has taken a leader whose presence alone was worth thousands to the Boer cause.

The best opinion here is that the Transvaalers are certain to continue the fight with undiminished valor, but it is not so certain about the Free Staters.

THE SURRENDER OF GEN. CRONJE.

Boer General Turned Over as Prisoners to General Roberts About 4,000 Men and Some Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—It was announced that Lord Roberts notified the war office that the number of Boer prisoners approximates 4,000, of which about 1,150 are citizens of the Orange Free State, although in one of the following dispatches he estimated the men captured at about 3,000. The remainder are citizens of the Transvaal.

These dispatches were received from Lord Roberts:

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 28.—7:45 a. m.—General Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight, and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that her majesty's government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring, as it does, on the anniversary of Majuba."

"Paardeberg, 11 o'clock Tuesday morning—From information furnished daily to me by the intelligence department it became apparent that General Cronje's force was becoming more depressed and that the discontent of the troops and the discord among the leaders was rapidly increasing. This feeling was doubtless accentuated by the disappointment caused when the Boer reinforcements which tried to relieve General Cronje were defeated by our troops on Feb. 23. I resolved, therefore, to bring pressure to bear on the enemy.

"Each night the trenches were pushed forward toward the enemy's laager, so as to gradually contract his position and at the same time I bombarded it heavily with artillery, which was yesterday materially aided by the arrival of four six-inch howitzers which I had ordered up from De Aar. In carrying out these measures a captive balloon gave great assistance by keeping us informed of the dispositions and movements of the enemy.

"At 3 a. m. today a most dashing advance was made by the Canadian regiment and some engineers, supported by the First Gordon Highlanders and Second Shropshires, resulting in our gaining a point some 600 yards nearer the enemy and within 80 yards of his trenches, where our men entrenched themselves and maintained their positions till morning, a gallant deed worthy of our colonial comrades and which, I am glad to say, was attended by comparatively slight loss.

"This apparently clinched matters, for, at daylight today, a letter signed by General Cronje, in which he stated that he surrendered unconditionally, was brought to our outposts under a flag of truce.

"In my reply, I told General Cronje he must present himself at my camp, and that his forces must come out of their laager after laying down their arms. By 7 a. m. I received General Cronje, and dispatched a telegram to you announcing the fact.

"In the course of conversation he asked for kind treatment at our hands, and also that his wife, grandson, private secretary, adjutant and servants might accompany him wherever he might be sent. I reassured him and told him his request would be complied with. I informed him that a general officer would be sent with him to Cape Town, to ensure his being treated with proper respect enroute. He will start this afternoon under charge of Major General Prettyman, who will hand him over to the general commanding at Cape Town.

"The prisoners, who number about 3,000, will be formed into commandos under our own officers. They will also leave here today, reaching the Modder river tomorrow, when they will be ruled to Cape Town in detachments."

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 27.—In a very successful attack made by the Royal Canadian contingent on one of the enemy's trenches this morning, Major Pellinier was wounded, 8 men were killed and 29 men were wounded.

"General MacDonald is expected to return to duty in a few days."

Wounded—Corporals W. S. Bradee, F. W. Coombs, C. G. Hulme; Privates A. Bagot, J. L. Bradshaw, N. E. Durant, P. J. Living, A. Roy, "7868," Sergeant W. Peppicott (?); Privates F. W. Sprague, K. Vilkers, E. U. Hughes, J. E. McConnell, A. Polkey, H. Proult, J. Sigvert, A. Theriault, F. Wasdele, Corporal F. H. Rutherford, and ten others follow.

Lord Roberts, in a dispatch to Governor General Lord Minto, at Ottawa, gives the names of Private Johnston and Scott as killed, in addition to those enumerated above.

The war office issued a list of 731 non-commissioned officers and men wounded in the fighting at Paardeberg, Sunday, Feb. 18, including 63 Canadians and 273 Highlanders.

ENTHUSIASM IN ENGLAND.

People of London Jubilant Over Victory. Also Rejoicing in Colonies and Settlements.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Enthusiasm, which exhibited in parliament over Lord Roberts' graphic details of the surrender of General Cronje, spread quickly to the streets. Crowds of people again gathered about the war office and the other bulletin places. Frequent cheers were given for "Bobs," who is the hero of the hour, and one old soldier became so excited in recounting the details of the victory that he fell dead.

In the more frequented parts of the metropolis flags were few and far between, and in Pall Mall, where the war office is situated, there was not a single bit of bunting flying, while only one flag flew over the Strand. But in the East End of London there were many small flags waving from the windows of the squalid dwellings. As the evening fell Londoners gave themselves up to unrestrained rejoicing.

On all sides the gallantry of the Canadians was much commented upon.

Cable dispatches poured in from the colonies and the settlements announcing that the rejoicing in those parts of the world was no less enthusiastic than in Great Britain itself.

It was reported that Lady Roberts, wife of Field Marshal Lord Roberts, will shortly start to join her husband.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The queen visited the hospital at Netley.

Immense crowds awaited her arrival and cheered themselves hoarse. The village was gayly decorated with flags, and her majesty's reception on the hospital grounds presented a scene of enthusiasm, the brilliant and bright uniforms adding color to the surroundings. The sovereign was visibly affected as she made a tour of the wards and spoke in the most kindly terms to numbers of the wounded.

FOREIGN OFFICERS CAPTURED.

Albrecht and Dewitz Among Those With Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The officers captured by General Roberts, besides General Piet Cronje, include the following well known commanders:

Chief Commandant M. J. Wolverans, a member of the volksraad; Field Cornet Frus, a Scandinavian; Major Albrecht, the famous German artillery man; Major Von Dewitz, the distinguished German officer responsible for most of the splendid engineering works of the Boers since the commencement of the war.

Twenty-nine Transvaal officers were captured and 18 Free State officers were made prisoners.

The guns captured from the Transvaal forces were three 75-centimeter Krupps, nine one-pounders and one Maxim gun. From the Free Staters the British captured one 75-centimeter Krupp and one Maxim gun.

PRESBYTERIAN'S CHARGE.

King of the Belgians Said an Investigation Was Going on in Congo Free State.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In reply to representations in regard to the charges made by W. M. Morrison, of the American Presbyterian mission, with headquarters at Nashville, of outrages committed in the Congo Free State, including the demanding of enormous tributes from the people, the king of the Belgians says the government of the Congo Free State has been informed of the charges and that a judicial investigation is proceeding.

The British colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, who was also notified of the charges made, suggested that the matter should be referred to the foreign office, and the United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, to whom the charges were communicated, says he regrets he is unable to act without instructions from the state department, and suggests that representations on the subject be forwarded to Secretary Hay.

Miss Edie Dunsinuir Married.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Naval Commander Arthur Goff-Calthorpe and Miss Edie Dunsinuir, daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsinuir, of Victoria, B. C., were married at St. George's, Hanover Square. The bishop of British Columbia officiated at the ceremony.

PORTO RICO'S VIEW

Trinidad Has Free Trade With United States.

THEN WHY NOT OUR ISLAND?

Delegations, In a Statement to Congress, Say They Consider This Unfair—Declare Idea and Theory of a Tariff Repugnant to Them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The members of the several delegations from Porto Rico now in Washington, having read the compromise measure adopted at the Republican conference, united in a statement to congress, in which they say that the idea and theory of a tariff is repugnant to them, and that they are content to stand before their people and the people of the United States on the broad proposition that the island is entitled to receive absolutely free relations at once.

They call attention to the fact that the United States government, through the state department, recently negotiated a treaty with the island of Trinidad, in the West Indies, which is a British province, and a direct competitor of Porto Rico, by the terms of which treaty Trinidad is to receive from the United States, free of duty, all articles of machinery and implements and articles of husbandry and nearly all food supplies, the free list for Trinidad in this treaty being larger than the list of articles now admitted free in Porto Rico by executive order, all of which it is proposed to tax under the tariff bill now pending in congress. The delegations consider this unfair.

DEPEW'S ELOQUENT SPEECH.

Defended Administration's Philippine Policy—Turley Concluded Speech Against the Seating of Quay.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Mr. Depew (N. Y.) addressed the senate on the Philippines question. His oration was beautiful in thought and diction. He strongly upheld the policy of the administration, and, in conclusion, pictured so brilliantly commerce and civilization moving hand in hand for the happiness and uplifting of the people of the Philippines, as well as those of this country, that the galleries were swept by a storm of applause.

After Mr. Turley had concluded his speech on the Quay case, the Hawaiian government bill was again taken up, but little progress was made. An agreement was reached that a final vote should be taken on the measure today.

Mr. Turley (Tenn.), concluding his argument on the Quay case, begun the day before, was maintaining that the framers of the constitution intended that the legislature, and not the governor, should name the senators, except in certain circumstances, presented clearly by the constitution, when Mr. Penrose inquired if it were not the intention of the framers of the constitution that the senate at all times should be full, so that in view of such important matters as the force bill, an impeachment trial, or some similar case which might hinge upon one vote, the states might have equal representation.

Mr. Turley replied that that was the intention of the framers of the constitution, but it would not necessarily follow that the senate at all times could be kept full.

Mr. Spooner inquired what would be done should an insurrection, breaking out in a state dispersing the legislature and thus preventing it from electing a senator.

"Well," responded Mr. Turley, "it is my idea that if the insurrection attained such magnitude as to disperse the legislature, it would be pretty likely to have the governor running, too."

To this Mr. Spooner replied that the governor could not very well be "dispersed."

Mr. Turley discussed precedents and maintained that from 1825 to the present time not a case could be found in support of the contention of Mr. Quay's supporters.

"It is impossible to find in all the records a precedent for this case," declared Mr. Turley. "To sum up the matter I may say that where the legislature either before or after the happening of the vacancy has had opportunity to fill the vacancy and has failed to do so the governor under every precedent for 75 years has no authority to make the appointment."

"That is the consistent rule of the senate for three-quarters of a century. This being the only body which can construe this particular clause of the constitution, are we to say, in 1888, when Mr. Corbett was knocking at the doors of the senate, one thing, and in 1900, when Mr. Quay is knocking at the doors, another?"

After Mr. Teller had made an explanation of his vote in the Mantle case, and had declared his purpose to stand by the senate's action to the Corbett case, the Quay case was laid aside. Mr. Penrose gave notice that he would call it today and every legislative day thereafter, his intention being to give way only to consideration of the conference report on the financial bill, which is privileged.

EXPECT BILL TO PASS.

Republican Managers Think Porto Rico Measure Will Go Through Today.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Republican managers are now confident that the modifications agreed upon at the conference Monday night the bill will command a narrow majority in the final vote today.

The general debate on the Porto Rico bill closed yesterday in a blaze of glory. The galleries were banked to the doors and every seat on the floor was occupied when the rival champions of the respective sides, Mr. Dilliver, of Iowa, and Mr. Bailey, of Texas, made the closing arguments. Each spoke for an hour and a half.

CAPT. REICHMAN WITH BOERS.

Affairs at the United States Consulate Running Smoothly.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A cablegram received at the state department from Mr. Adelbert Hay, United States consul at Pretoria, reported the arrival at that capital of Captain Carl Reichmann, the United States army officer detailed to observe the conduct of the war in South Africa from the Boer side.

Mr. Hay adds that Captain Reichmann was courteously received by the Boer officials. The cablegram was dated Tuesday, and it is said at the department that all of the business of the consulate is being conducted with the greatest dispatch and smoothness.

THE RIVAL GOVERNORS.

They Still Maintain Dual Governments in the Capital of Kentucky.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 28.—Two state governments, completely officered, and each claiming to be the regular and legal officials, are in Frankfort and will remain, each claiming the right to administer the affairs of state until the question is adjudicated in the courts. As anticipated, the banks refuse to recognize either of the contending factions and, as a result, both are without money and the state funds are as securely tied up as they could be.

Legislators, county, as well as state officials, and all kinds of contractors with the state will have to wait until somebody is authorized by a decision of the court to pay them, and the state will have to wait on what is due it until the courts say who is authorized to receive it. The Democratic state officers have opened offices in the State hotel. The charitable and penal state institutions are among the sufferers.

PLAGUE AGAIN BROKE OUT.

Three More Cases Ended Fatally in Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The steamer Australia arrived from Honolulu. The Associated Press correspondent at Honolulu, writing under date of Feb. 20, said:

"After 12 days passing without sign of the plague, three cases were discovered yesterday and all ended fatally. The victims were two Chinese males and a woman half breed."

It is probable the case of the woman can be traced to infected food. A part of the block in which the woman lived was suspected some time ago, and destroyed by fire.

The council of state met, on request of the board of health, and appropriated $100,000 to fight the plague. In addition, the sum of $345,523 was appropriated for the extension and the completion of the sewer system. This last item was appropriated, subject to the approval of President McKinley.

Precautionary measures have been taken regarding the shipments of sugar. Consul Haywood, who has returned, reports no undue excitement at Hilo. The residents are taking every possible means of stamping out the plague, and portions of the town which were in a very unsanitary condition are being cleaned.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1900.

TRUCE TO BURY DEAD

Buller Having Hard Fighting In Natal.

VICTORY OF GEN. LORD ROBERTS.

He Is In Striking Distance of One of the Boer Capitals—Believed Transvaalers Will Continue to Fight, but Not So Certain About Free Staters.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Sir Redvers Buller is having a hard time in Natal. It is evident now, after a fortnight's fighting, that he was misled when he wired that there was only a weak rear guard between him and Ladysmith. Apparently some of the hardest fighting of the war took place at the end of last week, as an armistice was agreed upon to allow attendance upon the wounded and burial of the dead. Both sides must have lost heavily.

At any moment, however, news may come of General Buller's success. Friday will begin the fourth month of the siege of the garrison, which is seemingly in a position where it is unable to do anything to help General Buller.

The government entertains no illusion. As announced in the house of commons, 10,000 additional troops will immediately go out, and the effective will be kept near 200,000.

Lord Roberts has done more than to capture 4,000 Boers and a few guns. He is within striking distance of one of the Boer capitals, and is master of a large district of the Free State. He has given a shock to Boer confidence and immeasurably restored the spirit of his own troops. In capturing Cronje he has taken a leader whose presence alone was worth thousands to the Boer cause.

The best opinion here is that the Transvaalers are certain to continue the fight with undiminished valor, but it is not so certain about the Free Staters.

THE SURRENDER

OF GEN. CRONJE.

Boer General Turned Over as Prisoners to General Roberts About 4,000 Men and Some Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—It was announced that Lord Roberts notified the war office that the number of Boer prisoners approximates 4,000, of which about 1,150 are citizens of the Orange Free State, although in one of the following dispatches he estimated the men captured at about 3,000. The remainder are citizens of the Transvaal.

These dispatches were received from Lord Roberts:

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 28.—7:45 a. m.—General Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight, and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that her majesty's government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring, as it does, on the anniversary of Majuba."

"Paardeberg, 11 o'clock Tuesday morning—From information furnished daily to me by the intelligence department it became apparent that General Cronje's force was becoming more depressed and that the discontent of the troops and the discord among the leaders was rapidly increasing. This feeling was doubtless accentuated by the disappointment caused when the Boer reinforcements which tried to relieve General Cronje were defeated by our troops on Feb. 23. I resolved, therefore, to bring pressure to bear on the enemy.

"Each night the trenches were pushed forward toward the enemy's laager, so as to gradually contract his position and at the same time I bombarded it heavily with artillery, which was yesterday materially aided by the arrival of four six-inch howitzers which I had ordered up from De Aar. In carrying out these measures a captive balloon gave great assistance by keeping us informed of the dispositions and movements of the enemy.

"At 3 a. m. today a most dashing advance was made by the Canadian regiment and some engineers, supported by the First Gordon Highlanders and Second Shropshires, resulting in our gaining a point some 600 yards nearer the enemy and within 80 yards of his trenches, where our men entrenched themselves and maintained their positions till morning, a gallant deed worthy of our colonial comrades and which, I am glad to say, was attended by comparatively slight loss.

"This apparently clinched matters, for, at daylight today, a letter signed by General Cronje, in which he stated that he surrendered unconditionally, was brought to our outposts under a flag of truce.

"In my reply, I told General Cronje he must present himself at my camp, and that his forces must come out of their laager after laying down their arms. By 7 a. m. I received General Cronje, and dispatched a telegram to you announcing the fact.

"In the course of conversation he asked for kind treatment at our hands, and also that his wife, grandson, private secretary, adjutant and servants might accompany him wherever he might be sent. I reassured him and told him his request would be complied with. I informed him that a general officer would be sent with him to Cape Town, to ensure his being treated with proper respect en route. He will start this afternoon under charge of Major General Pretorius, who will hand him over to the general commanding at Cape Town.

"The prisoners, who number about 3,000, will be formed into commandos under our own officers. They will also leave here today, reaching the Modder river tomorrow, when they will be railed to Cape Town in detachments."

"PAARDEBERG, Feb. 27.—In a very successful attack made by the Royal Canadian contingent on one of the enemy's trenches this morning, Major Pellinier was wounded, 8 men were killed and 20 men were wounded.

"General MacDonald is expected to return to duty in a few days."

Wounded—Corporals W. S. Bradee, F. W. Coombs, C. G. Hulme; Privates A. Bagot, J. L. Bradshaw, N. E. Durant, P. J. Living, A. Roy, "7868," Sergeant W. Peppicott (?); Privates F. W. Sprague, K. Vickers, E. U. Hughes, J. F. McConnell, A. Polkey, H. Proult, J. Sievert, A. Theriault, F. Wasdeed, Corporal F. H. Rutherford, and ten others follow.

Lord Roberts, in a dispatch to Governor General Lord Minto, at Ottawa, gives the names of Private Johnston and Scott as killed, in addition to those enumerated above.

The war office issued a list of 731 non-commissioned officers and men wounded in the fighting at Paardeberg, Sunday, Feb. 18, including 63 Canadians and 273 Highlanders.

ENTHUSIASM IN ENGLAND.

People of London Jubilant Over Victory. Also Rejoicing in Colonies and Settlements.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Enthusiasm, which exhibited in parliament over Lord Roberts' graphic details of the surrender of General Cronje, spread quickly to the streets. Crowds of people again gathered about the war office and the other bulletin places. Frequent cheers were given for "Bobs," who is the hero of the hour, and one old soldier became so excited in recounting the details of the victory that he fell dead.

In the more frequented parts of the metropolis flags were few and far between, and in Pall Mall, where the war office is situated, there was not a single bit of bunting flying, while only one flag flew over the Strand. But in the East End of London there were many small flags waving from the windows of the squalid dwellings. As the evening fell Londoners gave themselves up to unrestrained rejoicing.

On all sides the gallantry of the Canadians was much commented upon.

Cable dispatches poured in from the colonies and the settlements announcing that the rejoicing in those parts of the world was no less enthusiastic than in Great Britain itself.

It was reported that Lady Roberts, wife of Field Marshal Lord Roberts, will shortly start to join her husband.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The queen visited the hospital at Netley.

Immense crowds awaited her arrival and cheered themselves hoarse. The village was gayly decorated with flags, and her majesty's reception on the hospital grounds presented a scene of enthusiasm, the brilliant and bright uniforms adding color to the surroundings. The sovereign was visibly affected as she made a tour of the wards and spoke in the most kindly terms to numbers of the wounded.

FOREIGN OFFICERS CAPTURED.

Albrecht and Dewitz Among Those With Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The officers captured by General Roberts, besides General Piet Cronje, include the following well known commanders:

Chief Commandant M. J. Wolverans, a member of the volksraad; Field Cornet Frus, a Scandinavian; Major Albrecht, the famous German artilleryman; Major Von Dewitz, the distinguished German officer responsible for most of the splendid engineering works of the Boers since the commencement of the war.

Twenty-nine Transvaal officers were captured and 18 Free State officers were made prisoners.

The guns captured from the Transvaal forces were three 75-centimeter Krupp's, nine one-pounders and one Maxim gun.

From the Free Staters the British captured one 75-centimeter Krupp and one Maxim gun.

DEATHS IN THE ARMY.

A Long List of Casualties Sent to the War Department by General Outis.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The war department received from General Otis the following list of deaths that have occurred among our military forces in the Philippines:

MANILA, Feb. 27.—Deaths, accidental, Nov. 7, William E. Beace, Company H, Thirty-fourth Infantry, explosion of guncock. Suicide, Feb. 23, George N. Knox, D. Sixth artillery; 2d, John C. Hudson, C. PRESBYTERIAN'S CHARGE.

King of the Belgians Said an Investigation Was Going on in Congo Free State.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In reply to representations in regard to the charges made by W. M. Morrison, of the American Presbyterian mission, with headquarters at Nashville, of outrages committed in the Congo Free State, including the demanding of enormous tributes from the people, the king of the Belgians says the government of the Congo Free State has been informed of the charges and that a judicial investigation is proceeding.

The British colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, who was also notified of the charges made, suggested that the matter should be referred to the foreign office, and the United States ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, to whom the charges were communicated, says he regrets he is unable to act without instructions from the state department, and suggests that representations on the subject be forwarded to Secretary Hay.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Naval Commander Arthur Goff-Calthorpe and Miss Effie Dunsinuir, daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsinuir, of Victoria, B. C., were married at St. George's, Hanover Square. The bishop of British Columbia officiated at the ceremony.

PORTO RICO'S VIEW

Trinidad Has Free Trade With United States.

THEN WHY NOT OUR ISLAND?

Delegations, In a Statement to Congress, Say They Consider This Unfair—Declare Idea and Theory of a Tariff Repugnant to Them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The members of the several delegations from Porto Rico now in Washington, having read the compromise measure adopted at the Republican conference, united in a statement to congress, in which they say that the idea and theory of a tariff is repugnant to them, and that they are content to stand before their people and the people of the United States on the broad proposition that the island is entitled to receive absolutely free relations at once.

They call attention to the fact that the United States government, through the state department, recently negotiated a treaty with the island of Trinidad, in the West Indies, which is a British province, and a direct competitor of Porto Rico, by the terms of which treaty Trinidad is to receive from the United States, free of duty, all articles of machinery and implements and articles of husbandry and nearly all food supplies, the free list for Trinidad in this treaty being larger than the list of articles now admitted free in Porto Rico by executive order, all of which it is proposed to tax under the tariff bill now pending in congress. The delegations consider this unfair.

DEPEW'S ELOQUENT SPEECH.

Defended Administration's Philippine Policy—Turley Concluded Speech Against the Seating of Quay.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Mr. Depew (N. Y.) addressed the senate on the Philippines question. His oration was beautiful in thought and diction. He strongly upheld the policy of the administration, and, in conclusion, pictured so brilliantly commerce and civilization moving hand in hand for the happiness and uplifting of the people of the Philippines, as well as those of this country, that the galleries were swept by a storm of applause.

After Mr. Turley had concluded his speech on the Quay case, the Hawaiian government bill was again taken up, but little progress was made. An agreement was reached that a final vote should be taken on the measure today.

Mr. Turley replied that that was the intention of the framers of the constitution, but it would not necessarily follow that the senate at all times could be kept full.

Mr. Spooner inquired what would be done should an insurrection, breaking out in a state dispersing the legislature and thus preventing it from electing a senator.

"Well," responded Mr. Turley, "it is my idea that if the insurrection attained such magnitude as to disperse the legislature, it would be pretty likely to have the governor running, too."

To this Mr. Spooner replied that the governor could not very well be "dispersed."

Mr. Turley discussed precedents and maintained that from 1825 to the present time not a case could be found in support of the contention of Mr. Quay's supporters.

"It is impossible to find in all the records a precedent for this case," declared Mr. Turley. "To sum up the matter I may say that where the legislature either before or after the happening of the vacancy has had opportunity to fill the vacancy and has failed to do so the governor under every precedent for 75 years has no authority to make the appointment."

the Corbett case, the Quay case was laid aside. Mr. Penrose gave notice that he would call it today and every legislative day thereafter, his intention being to give way only to consideration of the conference report on the financial bill, which is privileged.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

CAN IT BE SO?

LAKE ERIE R. R. AFTER RIGHT OF WAY

About Smith's Ferry—May Come to Liverpool—News of the Suburb.

C. F. Hooker, of Smith's Ferry, was in East End, and if the statement he made becomes a reality, East Liverpool will become a terminus of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie rail road. Mr. Hooker is one of the men who lost their stores in Smith's Ferry by fire about 18 months ago, and was in the suburb calling on friends. Hooker stated to a reporter that engineers of the Lake Erie road had commenced to make a survey of the river bank south of Vanport for the purpose of extending the Lake Erie road from that town. The company intend to build a branch from the main line to Vanport, the place where the Standard Oil company is to erect a pipe mill. Land agents of the company, Mr. Hooker states, have been working in the vicinity of Smith's Ferry for some weeks, and one of these men said the railroad company intended to reach Liverpool if trestle work had to be constructed along the river bank.

OVER THE HILL.

Yesterday morning as John Searight was returning from delivering a load of coal in Dixonville, his wagon slipped on some ice as it was coming down the hill road, and when opposite the residence of Samuel Dobbs it went over the hill. The king bolt came out and the wagon and rear truck went over the hill, while the front truck and horses were left standing on the road. The wagon turned over four times, but escaped damage.

The Boat Did Not Arrive.

Had the river been clear of ice the packet Queen City would have brought to East End a number of people from West Virginia and Kentucky yesterday afternoon. Those who intended to come up wrote friends living in the suburb that they could not come on account of the failure of the boats to run. Some of these men have already arranged to go to work at laboring jobs in the East End flint mill and the sewer pipe works.

Scattering Cinders.

John Spence, who has charge of the East End streets, has been scattering cinders about the thoroughfares of the suburb for the past few days. All the cinders have been placed on the crossings, and when the weather moderates mud at these places will be very scarce.

Among the Sick.

Ellen, the small daughter of Rev. N. M. Crowe, who has been quite ill for the past few days, is recovering. Jacob Schroder, of Pennsylvania avenue, is ill with a threatened attack of typhoid fever.

Operations Suspended.

James Johnson, an oil driller who has been doing much work in the Ohioville district, has brought a number of his tools to East End to be repaired. Operations in that section have been suspended until the weather opens.

Personal.

Charles Blackmore, of Freedom, spent yesterday in the suburb visiting friends. He returned to his home last evening.

Admitted to Probate.

LISBON, Feb. 28.—[Special]—The will of Susan R. Greaves, late of Center township, has been admitted to probate.

Mechanics to Give Social and Dance--News of the South Side.

The school directors of the Grant district school at their next meeting will consider the plan of enlarging the school house in Chester. The present accommodations have been found to be too small for the number of pupils that are eligible to attend, and by next fall additional room must be provided. The population of Chester is steadily increasing, and, strange to say, the majority of the pupils who are now attending the school reside east of First avenue, while the school house is back of the postoffice. Some of the residents of the South Side want to have the town incorporated, in order that bonds may be issued and a modern school building be erected near the center of population, which will be probably in the vicinity of Second street. This section of Chester is being built up rapidly, and no sooner is a house completed than arrangements are made for its rental. When the mill starts many new families will move to Chester, and as their children must have an education a new school will be needed more than any thing else.

Want Another Car.

People who ride on the street car running to Chester would like the Street Railway company to put another car on the road. The claim is made that the car is unkempt and frequently breaks down, causing passengers much inconvenience in traveling. It frequently happens that the car has to be taken to the barn and another taken out in its place while necessary repairs are being made.

Good Bed of Sand.

An excellent bed of sand is now being worked by men employed by the South Side Land company. The sand is being taken from the northwest corner of the land company's addition at the north end of the hollow between the mill and pottery sites. This sand is being used in the construction of the pottery, and is of an excellent quality.

Repairing Their Tools.

Drilling in the Heck wells in the Grant district has been stopped and many of the tools used have been taken to repair shops where they are being overhauled. As soon as the weather opens operations will be resumed.

Agricultural Bulletins.

A Box Social and Dance.

The Chester mechanics have arranged to give a box social in their hall on the evening of March 13, and a dance on the evening of April 4.

Valuable Chickens.

William Allison, of Chester, is the possessor of some fine chickens, among which is one weighing about 11 pounds.

How Tayler Feels.

The Washington correspondent of the Ohio State Journal says: "Congressman Robert W. Tayler has returned from Ohio. I do not see any lines of care or worry upon the Tayler brow. He visited Canton, Youngstown and Lisbon, the three capitals of the three big counties comprising his district, and was much gratified to find out that the talked, about opposition was mainly in Democratic newspapers."

ELECTRIC LIGHT FRANCHISE

A COMMITTEE WILL LOOK OVER THE ORDINANCE.

It Says How High the Poles Shall Be and How Far From the Ground to Place Wires.

The ordinance granting to O. A. Smith the right to operate an electric light plant in the city was placed on its first reading at council last night and was referred to a committee composed of Smith, Cain and Ashbaugh. The ordinance provides that the poles shall be 30 feet high and the wires shall be at least 25 feet from the ground. The company must permit the city to use their poles for fire alarm wires and if another electric light company desires to use the poles they can do so, provided a compensation can be agreed upon. The company is compelled to commence work as soon as possible after the franchise is passed.

ASSESSMENTS.

A Supreme Court Decision That Will Be of Interest to Many People.

A special from Columbus tells of the decision by the supreme court in the case of the city of Salem against Laura R. Mulford, error to the circuit court of Columbiana county. Judgment was affirmed. This was a test case, and was brought to determine the right of the city to collect interest on 25 per cent of the assessable valuation of a property. The question was where an assessment amounting to 25 per cent of the valuation runs for a period of years whether the city has a right to charge interest on installments. The decision means that the city can not assess any property more than 25 per cent of the valuation for any one improvement including the interest.

A GOOD THING.

Fourth Street Will Be Paved Between Market and Jackson Streets.

H. A. McNicol and George Hamilton were the only people who did not sign the petition to pave Fourth street from Market to Jackson streets. Attorney Travis explained that 661 out of a total of 980 feet of property on the street was represented on the petition. Council granted the petition but Mr. Peach did not vote on the motion, asking to be excused.

Passed Council.

The ordinance to assess a special tax on the property in sewer district No 2 was passed at the meeting of council last night.

of TONGALINE are usually enough to subdue the severest paroxysms of pain in neuralgic or rheumatic or gouty disease. Then, when the pain is gone and the sufferer has rest and strength-renewing sleep, further treatment with TONGALINE cures the disease, radically and permanently, by causing the body to throw off the poisons which caused the disturbance. No external application of lotion or liniment can secure a permanent cure. The cause of the disorder must be reached by internal treatment. This is exactly what TONGALINE does safely and effectively.

Tongaline

It will cure stubborn cases of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, nervous and sick headache, la grippe, sciatica, lumbago, and similar diseases. It is always best to prevent disease, therefore TONGALINE should be taken when the first symptoms appear of rheumatic fever, neuralgic or rheumatic pains, &c. It is the most effective cure known for "spring fever," a dangerous condition in which the body is clogged with poisonous impurities. TONGALINE, by its power to throw off impurities, cleanses and renews life in every part of the body.

TONGALINE is safe to take. It contains no opium, no morphine, no dangerous narcotic of any kind. It has been tested for twenty years and has been praised in the highest terms by physicians and patients.

TONGALINE is sold by all druggists for $1.00 a bottle. Full information concerning its cures and how to treat disease is contained in the book we will send free to sufferers.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past--the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

SUBURBAN NEWS.

CAN IT BE SO?

LAKE ERIE R. R. AFTER RIGHT OF WAY

About Smith's Ferry—May Come to Liverpool—News of the Suburb.

O. F. Hooker, of Smith's Ferry, was in East End, and if the statement he made becomes a reality, East Liverpool will become a terminus of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie rail road. Mr. Hooker is one of the men who lost their stores in Smith's Ferry by fire about 18 months ago, and was in the suburb calling on friends. Hooker stated to a reporter that engineers of the Lake Erie road had commenced to make a survey of the river bank south of Vanport for the purpose of extending the Lake Erie road from that town. The company intend to build a branch from the main line to Vanport, the place where the Standard Oil company is to erect a pipe mill. Land agents of the company, Mr. Hooker states, have been working in the vicinity of Smith's Ferry for some weeks, and one of these men said the railroad company intended to reach Liverpool if trestle work had to be constructed along the river bank.

OVER THE HILL.

Yesterday morning as John Searight was returning from delivering a load of coal in Dixonville, his wagon slipped on some ice as it was coming down the hill road, and when opposite the residence of Samuel Dobbs it went over the hill. The king bolt came out and the wagon and rear truck went over the hill, while the front truck and horses were left standing on the road. The wagon turned over four times, but escaped damage.

Where the accident occurred a spring flowing from the hill has run on the road, making it very dangerous for a horse to travel that direction.

Council May Have Fancy
Enamel Iron Signs

PLACED AT THE STREET CORNERS

The Matter Has Been Left In the Hands of a Committee to Report at the Next Meeting but a Majority of the Council seem to favor the Plan.

A representative of the Beaver Falls
Enameling company was at council last night and wanted to sell council street
signs. He offered them in 1,000 lots at 28 cents each and in 4,000 lots at 23 cents each. His company guarantees the signs for 25 years and will replace any that chip in that time. The matter was referred to the street committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The majority of council seem to be in favor of having the streets lettered in such a way that it will be possible for a stranger to tell where he is when he comes to the city and wants to find any
one. There is already an ordinance which provides for the signs, but like many other ordinances it seems to be a dead letter. Section 173 of the ordinance says the signs shall be put up at the expense of the city, the letters shall be distinct and legible, and the work shall be
done under the direction of the engineer.

IMPROVEMENT ORDINANCES

Council Wanted to Dispose of
One, But Found That They Were Too Early.

The ordinance to improve Drury lane
from Market street to Jackson street
was placed on its first reading last night
at council. Peach asked that the ordinance be placed on its final passage, and three members at once moved that the rules be suspended. Engineer George stated that the resolution had not been passed a sufficient length of time to enable council to pass the ordinance under
a suspension of the rules.

The ordinance to pave Kossuth street
from Walnut street to the east line of Sugar street was placed on its first reading.

Orchard Grove Alley Is Going to
Be Paved as Soon as the Weather Opens.

The residents of Orchard Grove alley
last night asked council to pave the alley. The alley extends east from Calcutta road and the property on the south side of it is owned by Attorney F. E.
Grosshans and on the north side by the Riverview Land company. They agreed to pay the cost of the improvement and waive all rights. The petition was granted and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids. The contract will be let by the street committee.

MINORITY

Stockholders of Panhandle
File a Suit.

ASK FOR AN INJUNCTION

To Prevent Directors Paying
For Improvements.

From the Louisville Courier Journal, January 3, 1901.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 2.—Charles Barrett,
of Somerville, Mass., in a representative suit on behalf of holders of the minority
stock of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati,
Chicago and St. Louis Railway company (Panhandle), filed a petition today in the United States Circuit Court at this city, asking the court to enjoin the Panhandle directors from paying for certain improvements which they have been recently making on different parts of the system, from moneys realized as net earnings, claiming that a contract was entered into in the articles of consolidation which required the company to use certain bonds and preferred stock for such improvements, they being of a permanent character, and to pay out the
net earnings to the stockholders.

This suit appears to be different from the usual claims of minority holders, because it is insisted, in this case, that the question of distribution of net earnings
is not left to the discretion of the directors, but they are under express obligations, under the consolidation agreement, to distribute net earnings to that amount among the stockholders, instead of applying them to permanent improvements.

The case is one of unusual importance
both for this reason and the further one that if the claim is sustained the Pennsylvania Railroad company, as the alleged holder or controller of a majority
of the stock of the P. C. C. and St. L.
Railway company, will be compelled to submit to the issue on the part of the latter company of securities for all improvements hereafter of a permanent
character, and meanwhile pay out net
earnings to the amount above mentioned
to the stockholders. It is easy to discern the serious character of such a suit,
and the decision will be looked for with

"A Man of Mystery"

will be presented at the Grand tonight,
and it is safe to predict that every person who witnessed the play when it was here August 29 will see it again. It is a really good melodrama, and is of the kind that sets one to thinking long after
the curtain has fallen at the end of the last act. Hypnotism plays an important part in the play.

Tayler Is Confident.

Pittsburg Times Washington special.
—Representative R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, O., has returned to Washington
after a week's absence in his district, where he has been looking after his chances of renomination to congress.
"I expect to come back," said Mr. Tayler, in answer to an inquiry as to the outlook in his district. "There is some opposition to me, but I feel confident that this will be overcome before the primaries are held and that I will receive the endorsement of the people of my district."

Council May Have Fancy
Enamel Iron Signs

PLACED AT THE STREET CORNERS

The Matter Has Been Left In the Hands of a Committee to Report at the Next Meet-
Favor the Plan.

A representative of the Beaver Falls
Enameling company was at council last night and wanted to sell council street
signs. He offered them in 1,000 lots at 28 cents each and in 4,000 lots at 23 cents
each. His company guarantees the signs
for 25 years and will replace any that
chip in that time. The matter was referred to the street committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The majority of council seem to be in favor of having the streets lettered in
such a way that it will be possible for a stranger to tell where he is when he comes to the city and wants to find any
one. There is already an ordinance
which provides for the signs, but like many other ordinances it seems to be a dead letter. Section 173 of the ordinance
says the signs shall be put up at the expense of the city, the letters shall be distinct and legible, and the work shall be done under the direction of the engineer.

IMPROVEMENT ORDINANCES

Council Wanted to Dispose of
One, But Found That They Were Too Early.

The ordinance to improve Drury lane
from Market street to Jackson street
was placed on its first reading last night
at council. Peach asked that the ordinance be placed on its final passage, and
three members at once moved that the rules be suspended. Engineer George stated that the resolution had not been passed a sufficient length of time to enable council to pass the ordinance under
a suspension of the rules.

The ordinance to pave Kossuth street
from Walnut street to the east line of Sugar street was placed on its first reading.

FILED A PETITION.

Orchard Grove Alley Is Going to
Be Paved as Soon as the Weather Opens.

The residents of Orchard Grove alley
last night asked council to pave the alley. The alley extends east from Calcutta road and the property on the south side of it is owned by Attorney F. E.
Riverview Land company. They agreed to pay the cost of the improvement and waive all rights. The petition was granted and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids. The contract will be
let by the street committee.

He leaves all his property, both personal and real, to his wife for life or as long as she remains his widow. At her death or should she remarry the property is to be divided equally among his children, but not until the youngest becomes of age. He nominates William Kent as his contrary."

"I suppose your main opposition comes from friends of the disappointed seekers for office."

"Yes, but there is not so much of it

MINORITY

Stockholders of Panhandle
File a Suit.

ASK FOR AN INJUNCTION

To Prevent Directors Paying
For Improvements.

From the Louisville Courier Journal, January 3, 1901.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 2.—Charles Barrett,
of Somerville, Mass., in a representative
suit on behalf of holders of the minority
stock of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati,
Chicago and St. Louis Railway company (Panhandle), filed a petition today in the United States Circuit Court at this city, asking the court to enjoin the Panhandle directors from paying for certain improvements which they have been recently making on different parts of the system, from moneys realized as net
earnings, claiming that a contract was entered into in the articles of consolidation which required the company to use certain bonds and preferred stock for such improvements, they being of a permanent character, and to pay out the
net earnings to the stockholders.

This suit appears to be different from
the usual claims of minority holders, because it is insisted, in this case, that the question of distribution of net earnings
is not left to the discretion of the directors, but they are under express obligations, under the consolidation agreement, to distribute net earnings to that amount among the stockholders, instead
of applying them to permanent improvements.

The case is one of unusual importance
both for this reason and the further one
that if the claim is sustained the Pennsylvania Railroad company, as the alleged holder or controller of a majority of the stock of the P., C., C. and St. L.
Railway company, will be compelled to submit to the issue on the part of the latter company of securities for all improvements hereafter of a permanent
character, and meanwhile pay out net
earnings to the amount above mentioned
to the stockholders. It is easy to discern the serious character of such a suit,
and the decision will be looked for with
far more than ordinary interest.

"A Man of Mystery"

will be presented at the Grand tonight,
and it is safe to predict that every person who witnessed the play when it was here August 29 will see it again. It is a really good melodrama, and is of the kind that sets one to thinking long after
the curtain has fallen at the end of the last act. Hypnotism plays an important part in the play.

bon, O., has returned to Washington

FOR PRESIDENT—Second Term.
WM. M'KINLEY,
 of Ohio.

With a Taylor and a Baker in the race for congress the Republicans of this district should not want for clothes and pie.

THE Philadelphia Record, Democratic, asks "How long will this prosperity last?" As long as the Democrats are kept out of power to paralyze it.

A CRAZY SCHEME.

Toledo now proposes that if the legislature cannot appropriate a million of the state's cash to boom the Ohio centennial in that city, it should levy a special centennial tax to raise the amount. The scheme is too crazy to be considered outside of Toledo, the beneficiary. What do the people of Columbiana county and adjoining counties care about the success or failure of a local exposition in a third-rate town in a far off corner of the state?

STREET SIGNS.

WHAT IT IS ALL ABOUT.

The Porto Rican tariff bill now under discussion in congress provides for the levying of a duty of 25 per cent of the duties provided by the Dingley tariff law on all imports into Porto Rico. The opponents of the measure contend that Porto Rico is a part of the United States, and as such no tariff restrictions can be placed on the commerce between the mainland of the United States and the island, the constitution prohibiting the levying of a tax on commerce between the states. The advocates of the bill assert that Porto Rico is not a part of the United States, but merely a possession subject to its jurisdiction. The issue is, therefore, not so much whether there shall or shall not be a tariff on Porto Rican imports as it is a question whether congress has the power under the constitution to impose such a tariff. Upon the decision in this case will rest mainly the future government of all our island dependencies.

Mayor Bough to Run for Second Term.

SOME CANDIDATES DECLINE TO

Serve After Ticket Was Adopted by the Convention—Their Places to Be Filled by the Central Committee—A Very Harmonious Session.

The Prohibition convention for the nomination of candidates for the township and municipal offices in Liverpool township and the city of East Liverpool was held last evening in the Ferguson & Hill hall. There were about 40 persons present, and the older members of the party stated it was the best attended city convention ever held.

The meeting was called to order by Temporary Chairman S. J. Faulk, who was later elected permanent chairman, and Mayor Charles F. Bough permanent secretary. Mr. Bough stated the object of the meeting, and a committee composed of W. J. Curry, George C. Potter, Frank D. White, John M. Horton and William E. Mercer were appointed to nominate a city ticket and submit it to the convention for adoption. The result of the caucus was as follows:

Mayor—Charles F. Bough.
 Marshal—Jerry McMillan.
 Township Clerk—W. V. Harris.
 Treasurer—Charles Bowman.
 Township Trustee—Sears Shay.
 Street Commissioner—David Coventry.
 Board of Education—Rev. J. R. Greene, A. P. Cope, Z. B. Kinsey, D. M. Ogilvie.
 Water Works Trustee—John Aten.
 Council—First ward, Geo. O. Potter; Second ward, Ed. P. McHenry; Third ward, W. E. Mercer; Fourth ward, Chas. Risinger; Fifth ward, James Miles, Charles Hayes.
 Assessors—First ward, Ed Chandler; Second ward, Richard Till; Third ward, T. T. Harrison; Fourth ward, John

Reese; Fifth ward, Archie Searight; township, M. O. Fisher.

For city solicitor no one was selected.

After the report of the committee was adopted, Charles Bowman, for treasurer; Charles Hayes, for council from the Fifth ward, and Charles Risinger, for council from the Fourth ward, declined to serve. The convention adopted the rule that those who declined to serve report to the central committee and that they would take action toward filling such vacancies.

During the meeting short speeches were made by David Coventry, Ed Surles, Collin Kinsey, William B. Tompkins, Charles Hayes and Charles Bowman.

The convention was very harmonious and not a dissenting voice was heard about the adoption of the ticket.

Council Wouldn't Let W. C. Pointer Erect a Small Frame Building on East Alley.

W. C. Pointer asked council last night to allow him to occupy that portion of East alley between the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad and Second street. He wanted to put up a small frame building and promised to get off the land when council wanted it. Upon motion of Fisher the petition was rejected.

Amicably Adjusted.

The trouble over the cost of the Wells-ville bridge over Little Yellow Creek exceeding the $12,000 agreed upon by the parties to its erection has been amicably adjusted. The county commissioners in addition to paying their $5,000 will pay $1,000 of the $1,153 excess and the Penn Bridge company will bear the $153. The street railway will only have to pay its original $5,000 and Wellsville its $2,000.

A CAMPAIGN STORY

Aroused the Ire of Mr. Peach and He Made a Few Remarks at Council Last Night

An echo of the recent campaign was heard in council last night when President Peach said:

"It would be almost impossible to locate an individual so mean unless it would be on Pennsylvania avenue who would circulate a report as false as false can be. The report was that Doctor Marshall and I instructed the engineer to change the grade two feet on Pennsylvania avenue. Whoever circulated the report is simply a liar. We never influenced George in any way."

Engineer George stated they never spoke to him about the grade.

It is understood the story was worked in an effort to defeat Marshall for council in the Fifth ward.

DIED SUDDENLY.

William R. Mountford Passed Away Early This Morning, Aged 22.

William R. Mountford, aged 22, died suddenly at the home of his mother, Mrs. Eliza Mountford, 104 Sixth street, early this morning.

Deceased had been ailing for some time with pneumonia but was not considered to be seriously or dangerously ill. He was up and around the house last night, and also about five minutes before he died. He was unmarried. He was a member of the Young Men's Christian association. His father died two years ago today.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—[Special]—General
Buller announces in a dispatch to the war department this morning that he
has captured Pieter's hill, the main Boer
position on the road to Ladysmith.

He took 60 prisoners in the fight, the main Boer force retreating before his advancing troops. It is believed here
that Ladysmith will be relieved today
or tomorrow at latest. The news of Cronje's defeat has disheartened the
enemy, according to reports received
further resistance in his way to Lady-
smith.

in East End services were held. Rev. N.
M. Crowe leading in prayer, while Rev.
J. C. Taggart made a touching address,
speaking of the grand traits and characteristics of deceased, his kindness and unselfishness, his good citizenship and
his gallantry as a defender of his country's honor. In his address the speaker
made mention of the fact that he had officiated at the funeral of the mother of Warren T. McCain some thirteen years
ago. Two appropriate selections were rendered by the G. A. R. quartette, W.
H. Surles, F. G. Croxall, Wm. B. Mc-

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Manager Loree's Decision on the Petition Filed Against Them.

Over 10,000 Ohio valley citizens petitioned General Manager Loree for a discontinuance of Sunday trains on the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad, and he has promised that no additional regular
and no cheap excursion trains will be
train now running between Pittsburg
and Bellaire. This train, Mr. Loree
says, was put on to meet the demands of business men. The impression prevails
among some people that the charter obtained by the railroad company from the state prohibits Sunday trains, and that
rights-of-way were granted by Ohio land owners with the same provision. The petitioners propose to investigate both beliefs.

CLARK LOCAL

OPTION BILL

Sure to Pass the Senate, Says
a Columbus Dispatch.

THE COMMITTEE CONSIDERED IT

At Length Last Night and Will Have a
Hearing Tuesday Night of Next Week
Friends of the Measure Confident It Will Go Through Easily.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 28.—[Special]—The
senate judiciary committee held a meeting last night and considered the Clark
local option bill at length in executive session. It was decided to give the
friends and opponents of the bill a hearing at a meeting to be held Tuesday
night of next week.

The bill was considered only in its legal phases last night. The clause
making the reputation of a place sufficient to convict was alleged by some to
be unconstitutional but the committee
as a whole did not uphold this contention.

If the bill is reported favorably, as it
ment. This will be a severe blow to the opponents of the measure, who had hoped the senate would amend it and it would have to go back to the house for concurrence and perhaps be killed there.

There is little or no doubt that the bill
will pass the senate with votes to spare.
Mr. Clark, the author of the bill, says it will have 20 votes, and a newspaper
cavass shows that at least 18 senators are openly favorable. Sixteen is the constitutional majority.

Will Sue the City.

An action will be entered against the
Crawford Chamberlain lost on Trentvale
street. It is claimed the death of the horse was due to the negligence of the city in not putting up the proper barricades.

REAL ESTATE DEALER.

WE OFFER A NEW PLAN OF LOTS CALLED

ALPHA ADDITION,

Located south of Bank street, adjoining Bradshaw's addition, about ten minutes' walk from Diamond by the following route: From sixth street to Forest, to Walnut, to Brad-

$5.00 CASH AND $1.00 PER WEEK.

Only one lot to each purchaser. We want them to go to home builders. When you have paid your lot one-half off we will arrange an easy way for you to build a house, payable in low monthly installments.

THERE ARE BUT 55—SEE THEM.

The East Liverpool Land Company's Lots

At $550, $575, $600, $650 and $800, which includes grading, paving of sidewalks and street, laying of sewer, gas and water mains, are the best lots for the money offered in the city. These lots are not, as some think located at the north end of Avondale; they adjoin Ravine street;
two minutes' walk from the china works. Call and see plats at our office. Terms: Ten per

THE NEW THOMPSON ADDITION (BON TON.)

Has lots 50 feet wide, 100 to 300 feet deep. This promises to be one of the elegant residence sites of the city. Prices as follows: $650, $700, $750, $800, $1,000, $1,250, $1,300, $1,400, $1,450, $1,500, $1,550 and $1,650. There is a 100-foot room in this addition; grand view of river; clear air;
slopes to the east and of easy access. The more you look into this location the better you will like it. Terms: Cash or time.

JUST THIS SIDE OF OAKLAND, EAST END,

grading, sufficient fall for drainage. We sell them at $225 and $250. Terms to suit your income.

Our Country Residence Sites, Known as Ross' Meadows,

Are selling and many purchasers are in view. What is nicer than a snug country home?
We are selling this land in 2 1/2 acre lots, or larger if you want it. Located on the Lisbon and Liverpool road, 1 1/2 miles from city limits; good roads; it catches the notion of many people. If you are interested, come early and get your choice of the lots. Prices low; terms to suit you.

We do not attempt to mention here all the vacant lands and lots we have for sale. Sur-fice to say there is not a street, addition or allotment in the city but what we have some-
you information on real estate affairs that only comes from dealing in it.

He Captures Pieter's Hill, the
Boer's Main Position

ON THE ROAD TO LADYSMITH

And Expects to Relieve That Place Today
Or Tomorrow at Latest—Took Sixty
ment.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—[Special]—General
Buller announces in a dispatch to the war department this morning that he
has captured Pieter's hill, the main Boer
position on the road to Ladysmith.

He took 60 prisoners in the fight, the main Boer force retreating before his advancing troops. It is believed here
that Ladysmith will be relieved today
or tomorrow at latest. The news of Cronje's defeat has disheartened the
enemy, according to reports received
further resistance in his way to Lady-
smith.

LAI'D TO REST.

The Remains of Comrade Warren
T. McCain at Rest in River-
view Cemetery.

There was a large turnout of relatives, friends and G. A. R. comrades present at the funeral services of Warren
T. McCain yesterday. At his late home
in East End services were held. Rev. N.
M. Crowe leading in prayer, while Rev.
J. C. Taggart made a touching address,
speaking of the grand traits and characteristics of deceased, his kindness and unselfishness, his good citizenship and
his gallantry as a defender of his country's honor. In his address the speaker
made mention of the fact that he had officiated at the funeral of the mother of Warren T. McCain some thirteen years
ago. Two appropriate selections were rendered by the G. A. R. quartette, W.
H. Surles, F. G. Croxall, Wm. B. Mc-
Cord and Samuel Cartwright. The comrades of the veteran passed in review in the home residence, taking a last
and farewell of their beloved friend.

The pall bearers were F. G. Croxall,
J. O. Allison, Charles Shenkle, Samuel
Searight, G. M. Adam and W. H.
Surles.

The guard of honor was E. N. Hunts

Will Sue the City.

An action will be entered against the
Crawford Chamberlain lost on Trentvale
street. It is claimed the death of the horse was due to the negligence of the city in not putting up the proper barricades.

ALPHA ADDITION,

Located south of Bank street, adjoining Bradshaw's addition, about ten minutes' walk from Diamond by the following route: From Sixth street to Forest, to Walnut, to Bradshaw, to Avondale, to end of Bank street, where the addition lies. (Paved streets all the way.) Go and see it. Lots are to be sold from $125 to $275 on the following easy terms:

$5.00 CASH AND $1.00 PER WEEK.

Only one lot to each purchaser. We want them to go to home builders. When you have paid your lot one-half off we will arrange an easy way for you to build a house, payable in low monthly installments.

THERE ARE BUT 55—SEE THEM.

The East Liverpool Land Company's Lots

At $550, $575, $600, $650 and $800, which includes grading, paving of sidewalks and street, laying of sewer, gas and water mains, are the best lots for the money offered in the city. These lots are not, as some think located at the north end of Avondale; they adjoin Ravine street;
two minutes' walk from the china works. Call and see plats at our office. Terms: Ten per cent down and $10 monthly.

THE NEW THOMPSON ADDITION (BON TON.)

In these days of automobiles, motorcycles and horseless vehicles it may not be uninteresting to know that one of the early inventions in this country to do away with animal motive power originated in Kansas City, Kan. Samuel Peppard was the genius who constructed a vehicle that carried him and three companions over the plains from Oskaloosa almost to Denver. And with such rapidity, too, that he not only passed all the white people journeying the same way, but easily distanced Indian pursuers and won his rig the unstinted admiration of the red men.

It was during the time of the excitement following the discovery of gold in Colorado. A great many people had set out for this El Dorado, and long wagon trains were to be seen every day moving across the plains. Mr. Peppard was anxious to go, but there was one great difficulty in the way—he didn't have the money to buy horses and wagon. So he sat down and thought it all over, and then as a result he gave out that he was going to build a wagon with a sail, which he thought would make the trip in about as good time as any prairie schooner that was floating around over the wild and woolly west.

When he first began to build the wagon, the wise men of the town all laughed at him for wasting his time on such a craft, just as other wise men of Noah's time scoffed at the good patriarch. Mr. Peppard's advisers declared that if he attempted to navigate such a craft he would certainly be killed, and the people in general looked the wagon over, shook their heads and called it "Peppard's folly."

But Mr. Peppard kept on sawing wood and turning it into wheels and running gear and boards. At last it was finished. It was made of rough lumber and shaped like a skiff. It was eight feet long from prow to stern and three feet across at amidships and two feet deep. The bed was placed on a running gear with axles six feet apart, the wheels all the same size and about as large as the front wheels of a buggy. A ten foot mast was fastened to the front axle and came up through the bottom of the wagon box, and to this two sails were rigged, the larger 11 by 8 feet, the other 7 by 5. They were both to be worked by a rope through a pulley at the top of the mast.

If the wind was high, the smaller was to be used, and if it was low the larger was to be employed. The wagon had a brake and a rudder for steering. The bounds, instead of having a tongue attached, came up over the top of the bed and were welded together. A bar was fastened here and extended backward three feet. There was a seat placed at the end of the bar for the captain, and he steered by pushing the bar to the right or the left. The craft rigged out weighed 350 pounds, carried a crew of four men, a cargo of 500 pounds, the camping outfit and provisions serving as ballast.

Before Mr. Peppard started on his overland voyage he made a trial one mile south of Oskaloosa on the present site of the Jefferson county fair grounds. There is a level stretch of several miles, and a good, stiff breeze was on. When it struck the large sail, the craft stuck its nose down to the ground and came near capsizing. He slackened sail and set out again with the large sheet reefed and the smaller full against the wind, and away it whizzed. It went so fast, in fact, that the boxing in the wheels heated. Then, when it went over a little knoll, it leaped about 30 feet into the air and came down with a crash.

His vessel was a wreck, but Mr. Peppard was not discouraged. He mended new spindles, repaired the damage, and in a few days he and three companions were ready to start. Profiting by his first experience, Mr. Peppard chose a day to start when the wind was blowing only about ten knots an hour. The first day they went 50 miles. Their route lay northwest through Kansas and across the southwestern part of Nebraska until they struck the South Platte river, and from there they went toward Denver.

"Our best time was two miles in four minutes," said Mr. Peppard in describing the incidents of the journey. "We could not run faster than that rate, as the boxing would have heated. One day we went 50 miles in three hours and in doing so passed 625 teams."—Kansas City Journal.

Henry George's First Friend.

In the late seventies Henry George, the single tax reformer, came east from California. He was desperately poor and had but few acquaintances.

Shortly after his arrival he lectured before the Saturday Ethical club of New York, where his brilliant oratory and shabby attire made so striking a contrast as to excite the sympathy of those present.

After he left the club appointed a committee to aid him in getting up a public lecture. Among others, the committee included Seth Low, who was then engaged in business. He was in consultation at the time, and the committee were in a hurry, so he told them to send him a lot of tickets. They forwarded 20 to him the same day and felt happy at having secured $20 for the lecture fund. The next morning came a letter of thanks from Mr. Low praising the lecturer's intellectuality and inclosing a check for $250. The affair was a success, netting about $300, so that President Low may be said to have been the first man to start Mr. George on his eastern career.

Twenty years later, in 1897, Mr. Low was the citizens' candidate and Mr. George the labor candidate for mayor of New York. The latter made a vigorous campaign and in all his speeches advised the citizens, if they could not vote for him, to vote for his friend Seth Low, and on one occasion he said that if it had not been for the latter he would not be there as a candidate. Few understood his full meaning.—Saturday Evening Post.

He Was Enough.

There is a New York physician who takes an active interest in politics and is popular with the "boys." In spite of his jolly disposition he is an extremely thin man, so thin that many a joke is aimed at him. Here is the latest story they are telling about him:

A grocer's boy entered the doctor's office the other day with a basket of fine fruit which some grateful patient had sent to him. The doctor told the boy to place the basket in a cabinet which stood against the wall. At the same instant he stepped out of the room, and, going into an adjoining one, manipulated a contrivance which caused an articulated skeleton within the cabinet to waggle its head and limbs in an appalling manner just as the messenger boy opened the door.

With a yell of terror the boy fled. When the doctor had enjoyed a hearty laugh, he picked up a fine apple and followed the boy into the street to give it to him. "Come here, my boy!" he shouted. "Here's a fine apple for you." "Not on your life!" replied the affrighted youngster, taking to his heels again. "You can't fool me with your clothes on."—New York Tribune.

I have a story of a gentleman now engaged in educational work which is, I think, somewhat remarkable and is also quite true. This gentleman was once professor of mathematics in a fine New England college. He was greatly interested in the work and devoted himself so wholly to it that a natural tendency which he had to absentmindedness became much accentuated.

One day when he had guests at dinner and was helping them to fish from a platter he took a plate bottom side up, put a fish on the bottom of the plate and handed it thus to one of the guests. There was a laugh at once, and his wife said, "My dear, if your absentmindedness has gone so far that you are serving people food on the bottoms of plates, I shall insist on your resigning your professorship."

She did insist on it, and he resigned and went into another and more general field of teaching. He is still a little inclined to be forgetful—like some of the rest of us—but he has never since served food on the bottom of a plate.—Boston Transcript.

Insulted.

"Troubled with insomnia, are you?" said Dr. Paresis after listening to his patient's tale of woe. "Tried all the usual remedies, have you? Well, now suppose you try to read 'The Impressions of a Bohemian.' It's a new book, just out. I tried to read it last night and was asleep in three minutes."

"Sir," replied the patient, with freezing dignity, "I am the author of that book, and I have the honor to wish you a very good evening!"

Sham Antiquities.

A few years ago, in Soho, London, there was a factory for antique coppers which is probably still in operation. The legitimate business of the place was the manufacture of stewpans and kettles, but when trade was dull in that way any sort of antiques for which there happened to be a demand was produced instead.

An old incense burner, for example, would be reproduced by the dozen by hammering over a chuck. If ornamented with pierced work, the copies would be coated with asphaltum, through which the design would be traced, when it would then be eaten out in an acid bath, saving the time which would be required to cut out the pattern with a piercing saw. The bath leaves thin edges, by which such work may be detected.

The work would then be annealed and would be permitted to oxidize and scale. Pickling with muriatic acid and salt, to produce a good coating of verdigris, would complete the job. Sometimes these "antiques" would be purposely broken and would be clumsily mended with solder or with pure tin if the piece was to pass for a valuable ancient one. Chiseled metal was reproduced by casting and "dubbing" over with the hammer, then pickling, annealing and bending. In such ways helmets, copper and brass castings for antique furniture and the like were made.—Art Amateur.

In racing scenes the horses do run at full speed. They run, however, not on the fixed stage, but on what may be called treadmills, which keep the horses in front of the house for longer or shorter periods, according as they are moved quickly or slowly. A picket fence, placed between the audience and the course, not only makes the scene more realistic; it also hides the mechanism of the treadmills. This fence has contributed in another way to add to the effect by being moved in opposition to the direction of the horses and so lending to their apparent speed.

As to the sounds made by the footfalls of horses to be heard as though passing outside an interior scene, they are reproduced by the dried hoofs of dead horses or wooden imitations mounted on handles and hammered against surfaces of stone, gravel, sod or whatever the occasion may demand. They are also more elaborately manufactured by revolving a cylinder with pins protruding from the surface. These pins are arranged, like the spurs on a hand organ roller, to imitate trotting, galloping or walking when struck against other substances. If the sound of a carriage is to be added to the trampling of horses, wheels are run on sand.—Cassell's Magazine.

Needed in His Business.

"I've decided," said the dignified old man, "to let you have that young Brittle after all if you are positive that you can't be happy without him."

"Oh, father," the beautiful girl cried, "you don't know how happy you have made me! Now I can see the gates of paradise opening. Dear, dear, good, old papa! Let me kiss you for those sweet words! Oh, I can hardly wait to fly to him and tell him the glorious news. He will be so glad! We shall all be so happy now. It seems almost like a lovely dream! I can hardly believe that I am awake! But, tell me, what has made you change your mind? Yesterday when I tried to plead for him you said you would never permit us to see each other again. Ah, if you had known how those words bruised my heart! What has happened, father, to make you relent?"

He kissed her fondly and then, with tears in his eyes, replied:

"I sat in a little game of poker where he happened to have a hand last night, and if we don't get that money back in the fairly some way my business is going to suffer."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Afraid to Bid.

At an auction sale of miscellaneous goods at a country store the auctioneer put up a buggy robe of fairly good quality. An old farmer inspected it closely, seemed to think there was a bargain in it, and yet he hesitated to bid.

"Think it cheap?" asked the auctioneer, crying a 10 cent bid.

"Yes, kinder," was the reply.

"Then why don't you bid and get it?"

"Waah, I've bought heaps o' things in dry goods and so on," slowly rejoined the old man, "and I never yet took home anything that the old woman thought was worth the price. If I get that ere robe for even 15 cents, she'd grab it up, pull at one end, chaw on a corner and call out: 'Cheated again! More'n half cotton!' That's the reason I didn't bid."—Ohio State Journal.

A Cork Safe.

"The most curious safe I ever saw," said a traveling man, "was a cork one, and it was made by an ingenious Dutch mechanic for a one time famous confidence man named Dr. Baggs, who operated in Denver, Salt Lake City and Frisco. The safe was a folding affair, made of paper on a baking of sheet cork, and, when it was opened up, was six feet high and looked exactly like the real thing. As it was always placed in a corner, it had only two sides, but every visible detail was complete—combination knob, hinges, lettering, bolt heads and all. When folded, it could be carried in an ordinary dress suit case. Baggs used the thing in a fake lottery office which was of itself a marvel of trick furnishing."

"When the victim entered the place, it looked like an ordinary business establishment, with desks, railings, maps on the walls, safe in the corner and several clerks at work on books. The instant he left a roll top desk was opened up into a bed, the railing was folded together and slipped into a closet, a table was transformed into a washstand, a cabinet turned into a bureau, the safe was put away in its case, the curtains were pulled down, and the room was to all appearances a simple sleeping apartment. By that means the poor dupe was never able to find the place where he had been bunked."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Red Tape Illustrated.

A correspondent passing hurriedly into the room of the committee on rivers and harbors pulled the knob off the door.

"How can I get that fixed, do you think?" asked the congressman. "Shall I get the carpenter or the locksmith?"

"The locksmith, I suppose."

"Do you see that bookcase there?" said the committee secretary. "I caused the carpenter to paste some cloth on the inside of the glass doors in order that the books might not show. He did the work, but when he had finished I noted that he had not cleaned the glass before he put the cloth on. The thing looked so disreputable that I asked him why he had not cleaned the glass. He told me that the glass was a permanent fixture and that he had no authority to touch it, but that the placing of the cloth upon it was a temporary matter and was entirely within the province of his labors. The whole thing's got to be done all over again."—Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Didn't Buy It.

The following story will show the high price that illustrators of reputation command for their work: A young woman who had received treatment from Dr. S. Weir Mitchell of Philadelphia and was very fond of him decided, at a recent celebration of his birthday, that a fitting and appropriate gift would be the presentation of one of the original drawings of Mr. Howard Pyle for "Hugh Wynne." Forthwith she invaded The Century company's sanctum and, with her fingers tenderly grasping a new $10 note, asked to buy the drawing. She was informed that these pictures were never sold unless exceptions were made in cases where the artist himself or the author wished to make the purchase.

The little lady in her excitement dropped the $10 bill. The gentleman at the desk picked it up for her and smiled while she hurriedly took her departure. The good doctor was presented with a less appropriate gift that year.—New York Times.

At the Examination.

Teacher to little Isidor, who is very poor at fractions:—If I need $3\frac{1}{2}$ yards of cloth for a suit and the cloth costs 24 gulden a yard, what will the suit cost?

Isidor—To begin with, teacher, 3 yards would be enough for a suit, and you could get it at our store for 2 gulden. The suit would cost you 6 gulden.—Fliegende Blätter.

BLOWN TO COLORADO.

In these days of automobiles, motorcycles and horseless vehicles it may not be uninteresting to know that one of the early inventions in this country to do away with animal motive power originated in Kansas City, Kan. Samuel Peppard was the genius who constructed a vehicle that carried him and three companions over the plains from Oskaloosa almost to Denver. And with such rapidity, too, that he not only passed all the white people journeying the same way, but easily distanced Indian pursuers and won his rig the unstinted admiration of the red men.

It was during the time of the excitement following the discovery of gold in Colorado. A great many people had set out for this El Dorado, and long wagon trains were to be seen every day moving across the plains. Mr. Peppard was anxious to go, but there was one great difficulty in the way—he didn't have the money to buy horses and wagon. So he sat down and thought it all over, and then as a result he gave out that he was going to build a wagon with a sail, which he thought would make the trip in about as good time as any prairie schooner that was floating around over the wild and woolly west.

When he first began to build the wagon, the wise men of the town all laughed at him for wasting his time on such a craft, just as other wise men of Noah's time scoffed at the good patriarch. Mr. Peppard's advisers declared that if he attempted to navigate such a craft he would certainly be killed, and the people in general looked the wagon over, shook their heads and called it "Peppard's folly."

But Mr. Peppard kept on sawing wood and turning it into wheels and running gear and boards. At last it was finished. It was made of rough lumber and shaped like a skiff. It was eight feet long from prow to stern and three feet across at amidships and two feet deep. The bed was placed on a running gear with axles six feet apart, the wheels all the same size and about as large as the front wheels of a buggy. A ten foot mast was fastened to the front axle and came up through the bottom of the wagon box, and to this two sails were rigged, the larger 11 by 8 feet, the other 7 by 5. They were both to be worked by a rope through a pulley at the top of the mast.

If the wind was high, the smaller was to be used, and if it was low the larger was to be employed. The wagon had a brake and a rudder for steering. The hounds, instead of having a tongue attached, came up over the top of the bed and were welded together. A bar was fastened here and extended backward three feet. There was a seat placed at the end of the bar for the captain, and he steered by pushing the bar to the right or the left. The craft rigged out weighed 350 pounds, carried a crew of four men, a cargo of 500 pounds, the camping outfit and provisions serving as ballast.

Before Mr. Peppard started on his overland voyage he made a trial one mile south of Oskaloosa on the present site of the Jefferson county fair grounds. There is a level stretch of several miles, and a good, stiff breeze was on. When it struck the large sail, the craft stuck its nose down to the ground and came near capsizing. He slackened sail and set out again with the large sheet reefed and the smaller full against the wind, and away it whizzed. It went so fast, in fact, that the boxing in the wheels heated. Then, when it went over a little knoll, it leaped about 30 feet into the air and came down with a crash.

His vessel was a wreck, but Mr. Peppard was not discouraged. He made new spindles, repaired the damage, and in a few days he and three companions were ready to start. Profiting by his first experience, Mr. Peppard chose a day to start when the wind was blowing only about ten knots an hour. The first day they went 50 miles. Their route lay northwest through Kansas and across the southwestern part of Nebraska until they struck the South Platte river, and from there they went toward Denver.

"Our best time was two miles in four minutes," said Mr. Peppard in describing the incidents of the journey. "We could not run faster than that rate, as the boxing would have heated. One day we went 50 miles in three hours and in doing so passed 625 teams."—Kansas City Journal.

Henry George's First Friend.

In the late seventies Henry George, the single tax reformer, came east from California. He was desperately poor and had but few acquaintances.

Shortly after his arrival he lectured before the Saturday Ethical club of New York, where his brilliant oratory and shabby attire made so striking a contrast as to excite the sympathy of those present.

After he left the club appointed a committee to aid him in getting up a public lecture. Among others, the committee included Seth Low, who was then engaged in business. He was in consultation at the time, and the committee were in a hurry, so he told them to send him a lot of tickets. They forwarded 20 to him the same day and felt happy at having secured $20 for the lecture fund. The next morning came a letter of thanks from Mr. Low praising the lecturer's intellectuality and inclosing a check for $250. The affair was a success, netting about $300, so that President Low may be said to have been the first man to start Mr. George on his eastern career.

Twenty years later, in 1897, Mr. Low was the citizens' candidate and Mr. George the labor candidate for mayor of New York. The latter made a vigorous campaign and in all his speeches advised the citizens, if they could not vote for him, to vote for his friend Seth Low, and on one occasion he said that if it had not been for the latter he would not be there as a candidate. Few understood his full meaning.—Saturday Evening Post.

He Was Enough.

There is a New York physician who takes an active interest in politics and is popular with the "boys." In spite of his jolly disposition he is an extremely thin man, so thin that many a joke is aimed at him. Here is the latest story they are telling about him:

A grocer's boy entered the doctor's office the other day with a basket of fine fruit which some grateful patient had sent to him. The doctor told the boy to place the basket in a cabinet which stood against the wall. At the same instant he stepped out of the room, and, going into an adjoining one, manipulated a contrivance which caused an articulated skeleton within the cabinet to waggle its head and limbs in an appalling manner just as the messenger boy opened the door.

With a yell of terror the boy fled. When the doctor had enjoyed a hearty laugh, he picked up a fine apple and followed the boy into the street to give it to him. "Come here, my boy!" he shouted. "Here's a fine apple for you."

"Not on your life!" replied the affrighted youngster, taking to his heels again. "You can't fool me with your clothes on."—New York Tribune.

I have a story of a gentleman now engaged in educational work which is, I think, somewhat remarkable and is also quite true. This gentleman was once professor of mathematics in a fine New England college. He was greatly interested in the work and devoted himself so wholly to it that a natural tendency which he had to absentmindedness became much accentuated.

One day when he had guests at dinner and was helping them to fish from a platter he took a plate bottom side up, put a fish on the bottom of the plate and handed it thus to one of the guests. There was a laugh at once, and his wife said, "My dear, if your absentmindedness has gone so far that you are serving people food on the bottoms of plates, I shall insist on your resigning your professorship."

She did insist on it, and he resigned and went into another and more general field of teaching. He is still a little inclined to be forgetful—like some of the rest of us—but he has never since served food on the bottom of a plate.—Boston Transcript.

Insulted.

"Troubled with insomnia, are you?" said Dr. Paresis after listening to his patient's tale of woe. "Tried all the usual remedies, have you? Well, now suppose you try to read 'The Impressions of a Bohemian.' It's a new book, just out. I tried to read it last night and was asleep in three minutes."

"Sir," replied the patient, with freezing dignity, "I am the author of that book, and I have the honor to wish you a very good evening!"

Sham Antiquities.

A few years ago, in Soho, London, there was a factory for antique coppers which is probably still in operation. The legitimate business of the place was the manufacture of stoves and kettles, but when trade was dull in that way any sort of antiques for which there happened to be a demand was produced instead.

An old incense burner, for example, would be reproduced by the dozen by hammering over a chuck. If ornamented with pierced work, the copies would be coated with asphaltum, through which the design would be traced, when it would then be eaten out in an acid bath, saving the time which would be required to cut out the pattern with a piercing saw. The bath leaves thin edges, by which such work may be detected.

The work would then be annealed and would be permitted to oxidize and scale. Pickling with muriatic acid and salt, to produce a good coating of verdigris, would complete the job. Sometimes these "antiques" would be purposely broken and would be clumsily mended with solder or with pure tin if the piece was to pass for a valuable ancient one. Chiseled metal was reproduced by casting and "dubbing" over with the hammer, then pickling, annealing and bending. In such ways helmets, copper and brass castings for antique furniture and the like were made.—Art Amateur.

In racing scenes the horses do run at full speed. They run, however, not on the fixed stage, but on what may be called treadmills, which keep the horses in front of the house for longer or shorter periods, according as they are moved quickly or slowly. A picket fence, placed between the audience and the course, not only makes the scene more realistic; it also hides the mechanism of the treadmills. This fence has contributed in another way to add to the effect by being moved in opposition to the direction of the horses and so lending to their apparent speed.

As to the sounds made by the footfalls of horses to be heard as though passing outside an interior scene, they are reproduced by the dried hoofs of dead horses or wooden imitations mounted on handles and hammered against surfaces of stone, gravel, sod or whatever the occasion may demand. They are also more elaborately manufactured by revolving a cylinder with pins protruding from the surface. These pins are arranged, like the spurs on a hand organ roller, to imitate trotting, galloping or walking when struck against other substances. If the sound of a carriage is to be added to the tramping of horses, wheels are run on sand.—Cassell's Magazine.

Needed in His Business.

"I've decided," said the dignified old man, "to let you have that young Britely after all if you are positive that you can't be happy without him."

"Oh, father," the beautiful girl cried, "you don't know how happy you have made me! Now I can see the gates of paradise opening. Dear, dear, good, old papa! Let me kiss you for those sweet words! Oh, I can hardly wait to fly to him and tell him the glorious news. He will be so glad! We shall all be so happy now. It seems almost like a lovely dream! I can hardly believe that I am awake! But, tell me, what has made you change your mind? Yesterday when I tried to plead for him you said you would never permit us to see each other again. Ah, if you had known how those words bruised my heart! What has happened, father, to make you relent?"

He kissed her fondly and then, with tears in his eyes, replied:

Afraid to Bid.

At an auction sale of miscellaneous goods at a country store the auctioneer put up a buggy robe of fairly good quality. An old farmer inspected it closely, seemed to think there was a bargain in it, and yet he hesitated to bid.

"Think it cheap?" asked the auctioneer, crying a 10 cent bid.

"Yes, kinder," was the reply.

"Then why don't you bid and get it?"

"Well, I've bought heaps o' things in dry goods and so on," slowly rejoined the old man, "and I never yet took home anything that the old woman thought was worth the price. If I get that 'ere robe for even 15 cents, she'd grab it up, pull at one end, chaw on a corner and call out: 'Cheated again! More'n half cotton!' That's the reason I dasn't bid."—Ohio State Journal.

A Cork Safe.

"The most curious safe I ever saw," said a traveling man, "was a cork one, and it was made by an ingenious Dutch mechanic for a one time famous confidence man named Dr. Baggs, who operated in Denver, Salt Lake City and Frisco. The safe was a folding affair, made of paper on a baking of sheet cork, and, when it was opened up, was six feet high and looked exactly like the real thing. As it was always placed in a corner, it had only two sides, but every visible detail was complete—combination knob, hinges, lettering, bolt heads and all. When folded, it could be carried in an ordinary dress suit case. Baggs used the thing in a fake lottery office which was of itself a marvel of trick furnishing.

"When the victim entered the place, it looked like an ordinary business establishment, with desks, railings, maps on the walls, safe in the corner and several clerks at work on books. The instant he left a roll top desk was opened up into a bed, the railing was folded together and slipped into a closet, a table was transformed into a washstand, a cabinet turned into a bureau, the safe was put away in its case, the curtains were pulled down, and the room was to all appearances a simple sleeping apartment. By that means the poor dipe was never able to find the place where he had been bunked."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Red Tape Illustrated.

A correspondent passing hurriedly into the room of the committee on rivers and harbors pulled the knob off the door.

"How can I get that fixed, do you think?" asked the congressman. "Shall I get the carpenter or the locksmith?"

"The locksmith, I suppose."

"Do you see that bookcase there?" said the committee secretary. "I caused the carpenter to paste some cloth on the inside of the glass doors in order that the books might not show. He did the work, but when he had finished I noted that he had not cleaned the glass before he put the cloth on. The thing looked so disreputable that I asked him why he had not cleaned the glass. He told me that the glass was a permanent fixture and that he had no authority to touch it, but that the placing of the cloth upon it was a temporary matter and was entirely within the province of his labors. The whole thing's got to be done all over again."—Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Didn't Buy It.

The following story will show the high price that illustrators of reputation command for their work: A young woman who had received treatment from Dr. S. Weir Mitchell of Philadelphia and was very fond of him decided, at a recent celebration of his birthday, that a fitting and appropriate gift would be the presentation of one of the original drawings of Mr. Howard Pyle for "Hugh Wynne." Forthwith she invaded The Century company's sanctum and, with her fingers tenderly grasping a new $10 note, asked to buy the drawing. She was informed that these pictures were never sold unless exceptions were made in cases where the artist himself or the author wished to make the purchase.

The little lady in her excitement dropped the $10 bill. The gentleman at the desk picked it up for her and smiled while she hurriedly took her departure. The good doctor was presented with a less appropriate gift that year.—New York Times.

At the Examination.

Teacher to little Isidor, who is very poor at fractions:—If I need 3 1/2 yards of cloth for a suit and the cloth costs 2 1/2 gulden a yard, what will the suit cost?

Third Avenue Trading Caused a Flurry For a Time—Other Features of the Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Third avenue was the centre of interest, as on previous days of this week, in the stock market Tuesday. On the sale of 1,100 shares at the opening, quotations were practically lost, simultaneous sales being made all the way between 68 and 63, against 71½ at Monday night's close.

Sugar maintained its prominent place in the market, but reflected much doubt and uncertainty on the part of the large outstanding short interest. It was forced down to 101½, and in the late dealings rallied strongly to 105½, with only a fractional reaction. There was much disorder and weakness manifest at other points in the list of specialties, notably in the local traction group and Tobacco. But an active demand for some of the railroad stocks, on reports of large earnings and covering of shorts in the specialties, brought the market to a high level and a quiet tone. During the hour after noon, the market seemed to have divorced itself entirely from the demoralizing influence of the movement in Third avenue.

But the next hour the bears fell upon the whole list tooth and nail, forcing down Western Union an extreme 3¼ and Baltimore and Ohio 2¼. Weakness spread from these to other points in the railroad list and wide losses were effected among the industrials. The local traction group were down from 2¼ to 5¼, United States Leather over 2, Rubber preferred 3, American Hoop more than 4, New York Airbrake 5 and many railroad stocks from 1 to 2 points, and later Pennsylvania, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis dropped 4. The bears rushed to cover at the decline, causing a rally from 1 to 2½ cents in the stocks which had shown greatest weakness. The final downward plunge in Third avenue was offset by the sudden rise in Sugar, leaving the tone in the general list confused and unsettled, but with losses in some points in the railroad list practically recovered. Strong showings of net earnings for January were made by Atchison, with an increase of 44 per cent, and Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis and Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg.

London bought stocks here, but not on a large scale, the surrender of General Cronje having apparently been discounted. The tone of the money market was firm, though rates were not quotably higher, but collateral is scrutinized with growing care and the standing and resources of borrowers are considered. The fact that the sub-treasury has absorbed, since last Friday, nearly $6,000,000 of cash cannot be without influence in the stock market.

Railroad bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,590,000. Government bonds continued their buoyant advance. United States new 4s advanced 1½ and the 3s, old 4s and 5s ¼ in the bid price.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Blown to Death by Explosions of Nitro, glycerin, Near Marietta, Ohio.

MARIETTA, O., Feb. 28.—Harvey Benedict and Chester Campbell, of Williams town, were blown to atoms while preparing to shoot a well with nitroglycerine.

Maryland Legislature Expressed Its Resolution Introduced.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 28.—During the session of the house, bulletins were read by the clerk, announcing the surrender of General Cronje. Mr. Lancaster, of Charles county, offered the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on federal relations: "Resolved, That this body of Maryland patriots express, in regular order or through proper channels, its intense admiration of the heroic stand made by General Cronje and his gallant band of heroes in their defense of man's dearest right, God-given liberty."

Pennsylvania Prohibitionists.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 29.—The Prohibition state executive committee decided upon Aug. 8 as the date for the state convention. State Chairman Jones was authorized to visit Johnstown and Williamsport and report as to the advisability of selecting either of these cities as the place for holding the convention.

Release of the Sabine.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Beyond making the statement, although already published that the steamship Sabine had been released by the British authorities at Port Elizabeth and had gone on her way, Ambassador Choate has made no report to the state department as to the outcome of his representations to the foreign office on the subject.

He Knew Human Nature.

Three young men were walking up Riverside drive the other morning, when a gamy looking race horse jogged by, drawing a natty trotting rig.

"Isn't that a splendid animal?" exclaimed one of the young men in cheery, admiring tones, pausing to gaze at the trotter.

The driver's eye sparkled, and his chest expanded. He had heard the compliment. Wheeling his horse around, he brought it alongside the pavement.

"Wouldn't you like to try a brush behind him?" he said courteously.

In a jiffy the young man was seated in the buggy, and the two were disappearing down the drive at a pace that justified the compliment of the pedestrian. His companions watched him enviously. Then one of them said:

"Bill is a judge of horseflesh."

Barrow, the Kidnaper, Insane.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—George B. Barrow, who, with his wife, kidnapped "Baby Clar" in Central park, this city last year, and who was sent to Sing Sing prison for 14 years, was taken to the asylum for insane criminals at Mattawan, having become insane. Barrow's wife is in Auburn prison serving a six and a half years' sentence.

Senator Jones' Son Married.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—Miss Annie Grey Taylor, only daughter of Mrs. George Taylor, of this city, and niece of Hon. Hannis Taylor, ex-minister to Spain, was married to James Kimbrough Jones, Jr., son of United States Senator J. K. Jones, of Arkansas. Rev. Archibald Carr officiated at the ceremony, which was held in the parlors of the West End hotel.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others? The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

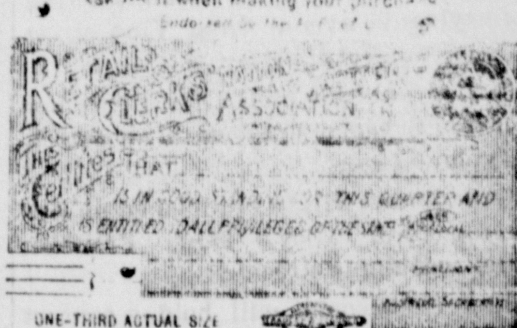

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

60 members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card 15¢ free when making your purchase.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER. Good only if printed upon the colored in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailors' Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the seat that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

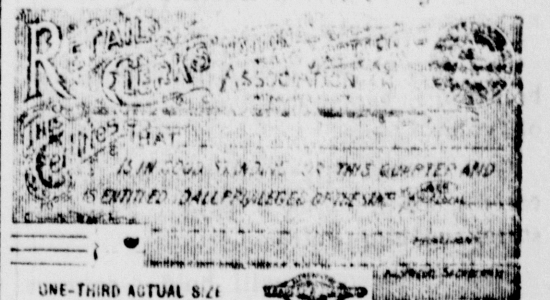

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

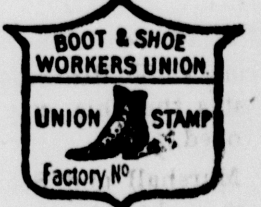

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the U. N. P. A. can check this card. Ask for it when making your purchase.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHING.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

Seats

For the musicale and concert at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night, March 1, when a splendid array of talent, from New York and Pittsburg, under direction of Mr. Ed. H. MacKintosh, will appear and charm music lovers in vocal and instrumental music. Admission to orchestra circle, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. The boy solo soprano, Master Haydn Stephens, will charm you in solos. Miss Gilmore, the soprano singer, is sure to win your favor, while Mr. John Lukhuert, the tenor, has a voice like a bird. The entire program is a rich one. Don't miss the treat.

SEWER PIPE TRUST.

Walker and Lythe Plants Have Been Absorbed by the New Combine.

At last the sewer pipe combine has been effected, and hereafter it will be known as the American Clay Manufacturing company. The new company will be composed of thirty plants and have a capital of $10,000,000.

The N. U. Walker sewer pipe works at Walker and the works of John Lythe, of Wellsville, have been absorbed by the new combination. No statement is made as to whether the present management will continue to operate the Walker and Lythe plants.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

Jacob Chamberlain Insisted on Having a Law Suit With Daniel McCloud.

The replevin action of Jacob Chamberlain against Daniel McCloud for five tons of hay was compromised yesterday in the court of Squire McLane and the case was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost. A number of witnesses were present, but Mr. McCloud made no claim to the hay and had told Chamberlain to get it, but he refused and insisted on having a law suit, as he "wanted to get that hay right."

East Liverpool's Vote.

East Liverpool held the city Republican primary election on Saturday, when 2,464 Republican votes were cast. Liverpool can't get over the force of habit of rolling up a big Republican vote at a Republican primary. What sort of a vote will be cast there on March 24 at the Republican county primary election when the secret ballot will be used?—Salem News.

As the ballot used here Saturday was also on the secret order, it is difficult to see what difference that will make. The chances are, however, that the county fight may not bring out as large a vote. Local fights always lead.

Awful!

The temperature recorded Monday night averaged 20 degrees below zero over town, and in Elkton, just four miles east, it dropped as low as 29.—Lisbon Patriot.

The Central Committee.

The Republican central committee will meet this evening and settle how the Fourth ward tie vote for council shall be fixed.

Able to Be Out.

The many friends of J. H. Simms will be pleased to learn that he is able to be out, after a pretty severe attack of pneumonia.

TWO UNKNOWN WOMEN DEAD.

Missouri Pacific Freight, Stuck in a Snow Drift, Delayed Express—Passenger Train Dashed Into It, the Engineer Not Seeing the Signal.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 28.—Owing to the blizzard, a freight train on the Missouri Pacific stuck in a snowdrift, near Independence, Mo. The St. Louis day express was delayed, and the St. Louis local passenger dashed into it. Fire added to the horrors of the wreck. Two unknown women were killed.

Among the injured were Mr. and Mrs. Schmidtlapp, daughter and mother, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Schmidtlapp was fatally hurt. She is an intimate friend of Mrs. McKinley.

A MILLION DOLLAR FIRE.

Persons May Have Perished in Newark, N. J.—Firemen Injured.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 28.—A million dollar fire occurred here. Some lives may have been lost. Four firemen were injured.

The principal losses are:
W. Y. Snyder and Co., $500,000; buildings, various owners, $275,000. J. W. Mantz, D. Bornstein and L. S. Plant & Co., $15,000 each.

Fit the Food to the Physical Task.

Feats of strength require a diet in accordance with the needs—that is, prolonged or otherwise. If you want to perform for a short time the greatest possible amount of muscular labor, as in playing a game of ball, rowing, running, bicycling, lifting or accomplishing any unusual feat of strength requiring an extraordinary effort, always select a diet rich in protein. If, on the other hand, you want to take a great amount of steady exercise daily, or perform a great amount of uniformly heavy work every day, but at no time of a very intense character, you should partake of a diet containing little protein, but rich in carbohydrates—that is, starches and fats.—Ladies' Home Journal.

United States Grand Jurors.

Thomas H. Arbuckle, of East Liverpool, and Martin McLaughlin, of Lisbon, now residing in Washington, have been chosen to serve as United States grand jurors during the April term.
